streightlie charged and commaunded the said petitioner shal keepe or cause to be kept a Court in al places as he shall thinke necessarie for reformation and due order therof, with the knoledge and presence of one of you, the Justices of Peece in anie countie or counties wherein is given to you, the Justices, auctoritie of assistance in that part. We are given to understand, by petition to us exhibited, that he intending and attending the putting in execution of his office by keeping of Courtes, as occasion convenientlie served for the reformation of the abuses abovesaid, hath hitherto found such remisnes in certaine of the Justices of the Peace, and in other officers to whome in this case yt appertained, in your assistance and willingnes for the holding of the said Courtes, that little redres hath ensued. These shalbe, therefore, to require you, and everie of you to whome yt appertaineth, that uppon the sight of the said letters pattentes and uppon request made by the petitioner or his deputie or deputies to you or anie of you in that behalfe, that you or anie of you to whome in this part yt may belong or appertaine doe within three or foure dayes after such request accompanie and sit with the said petitioner or his deputie or deputies at such place or places as the same petitioner or his deputie shal appoint, for the due execution of the said letters patentes or commission aforesaid, so that the distance of the place be not above foure miles from the place or dwellings of you, the Justices, whose assistance is so required according to her Majestie's good pleasure. And to take order that everie constable or tithing man, or other officer having a precept to him delivered by the said petitioner, shal retourne the same according to the true meaning of the same at the daye appointed, and that everie one being warnd to appeare shal appeare accordinglie, to the end that such good may ensue therof which is meant and desired for the benefit of the contrie and preservation of fish. And hereof we require you and everie of you not to faile, as you wil aunsweare to the contrarie.

A letter to Sir Henry Goodiere, knight, Richard Varney, High Shreef, Clement Fisher, William Purfrey, or to anie 3 or 2 of them. You shall receive hereinclosed a grevous complaint exhibited unto us by Ambrose Astell of Hurley in the countie of Warwick, gentleman, against Margaret Knolls of Henly in the said countie, of a forceable and riotous entrie made by the procurement of the said Margaret uppon a messuage and certain landes in Hurley aforesaid, which the suppliant alleadgeth to have bin possessed of as of his estate of inheritance, and of the rifling and breaking up of his cofers, chests and taking awaye and detaining his leases, deedes, writings and charters, and whiles the said Astell being under arrest by the procurement of the said Margaret was forceable caried xvij miles of, and committed unto the Shreef's warde in Warwick, albeit he offered good baile for aunsweringe her action, as more at large may appeare unto you by the said petition. Forasmuch as we are informed that the offendours have bin indited by the suppliant at a Previe Sessions and Quarter Sessions for the misdemeanour committed by them, who thereuppon have removed the cause by a certiorari into the King's Bench, therby farther to vex the suppliant, who alleadgeth not to be able to mainteine the defence of his cause by reason he is both dispossessed of his evidences, &c. and of al his household stuff and goodes, not having so much as apparel for him selfe and his wife left unto them, we have therefore in comiseration of the gentleman's distressed estate, and in respect of the disorderlie and unlawful proceedings of the said Margaret Knolls, thought good to praye and require you to enter into th'examination of this cause, and finding the contentes of the peticion to be true, to see the suppliant repossessed of his said messuage, goodes, writings, &c., until he shal be thence lawfullie evicted by due course of law. So requiring you to see the premisses accomplished accordinglie with al expedition, we, &c.

Lord
Ormonde's claims as an Undertaker.

A letter to the Lord Deputie of Ireland. Wee are given to understand by our vearie good Lord the Earle of Ormonde that the townes and landes of Bealadrohed, Killardry and Ballenemongnekirk and halfe the towne and landes of Ballinwollin in the Cross of the countie of Tipperarry, with other landes, are graunted by her Majesty's letters patentes unto the said Earle and his heires as an Undertaker, and that the Lord of Dowboine and others do at this present poces the said landes, being heretofore found by office for her Majestie before Sir Henry Wallop, Sir Valentine Browne, Justice Walsh and others. We have therefore thought good to require you (finding the said suggestion to be trew) to deliver unto the said Earle or unto his attourneis presentlie uppon sight hereof the pocesession of the said landes, and to mainteine him in the same until they shal be evicted from him by due course of lawe. And whereas we are likewise enformed that Mr. Charles O'Carrel and his men do rob, murder and spoile the said Earle's tenentes in Ormond, and that his Lordship's attourneys in that realme can have no remedie against him there, we require your Lordship presentlie to take good order that the said O'Carrel be sent over hither to aunswere such matters as shalbe objected against him and his followers. And so prayeng your Lordship to have due care in the full accomplishment of the premisses, we bid your Lordship vearie hartelic farewel, &c.
