January. 2: 1625 ¶ The first Chapter.

1. How heauen and earth, 3. the lyght, 6. the firmament, 16. the sunne, the moone, the starres, 21. and fishes in the sea, 24. and all beastes, and fowles, were made by the worde of God, 26. and how man also was created.

In the beginning GOD created heauen and the earth.

And the earth
was (a) without forme, &
was voyde:
and darknesse

(was) upon the face of the deepe, and the (b) spirite of God moued upon the face of the waters.

And God sayde, Let there be light: and there was light.

And God sawe the light that it was good: and God diuided the light from the darknesse.

And God called the light, Day, and the darknesse, Night: and the euening and the morning were the first day.

And God sayde, Let there be a firmament betwene the waters, and let it make a diuision betwene waters and waters.

And God made the firmament, and set a diuision betwene the waters which (were) vnder (c) the firmament, & the waters that (were) aboue the firmament: & it was so.

And God called the firmament, the Heauen: and the euening and the morning were the second day.

And God sayde, Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered together into one place, and let the drie lande appeare: and it was so.

And God called the drie land the earth, and the gathering together of waters called he the Seas: and God sawe that it was good.

And God sayd, Let the earth bring forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede, and fruitefull trees, yeeching fruite after his kinde, which hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

And the earth brought forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede after his kinde, and tree yeeching fruite, which had seede in it selfe, after his kinde.

And God sawe that it was good. And the euening and the morning were the thirde day.

14 And God sayde, Let there be lightes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may diuide the day and the night, and let them be for (d) signes, and seasons, and for dayes, and yeares.

15 And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may giue light vpon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lightes: a greater light to rule the day, & a lesse light to rule the night, & (he made) starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth.

18 And to rule the day and the night, and to make difference betwene the light and the darknesse: and God sawe that was good.

19 And the euening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God sayde, Let the waters bring forth (e) mouing creature that hath life, and soule that may see vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen.

21 And God created great Whales, and euery liuing and mouing creature, which the waters brought forth after their kinde, and euery feathered soule after their kind: and God sawe that it was good.

22 And God (f) blessed them, saying, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and fill the waters of the sea, and let soule multiply in the earth.

23 And the euening and morning were the fifth day.

24 And God sayd, Let the earth bring forth liuing creature after his kinde, cattell, wyne, and beastes of the earth after his kinde: and it was so.

25 God made the beast of the earth after his kinde, and cattell after his kinde, and euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth after his kinde: and God sawe that it was good.

26 God sayde, Let vs (g) make man in our image, after our likenesse, & let them haue rule of the fyshes of the sea, and of the soule of the ayre, and of cattell, and of al the earth,

The 4. day.
Deut. 4. 8.

(d) These lightes were not made to serue Astronomers phantasies, but for signes in naturall things, and tokens of Gods mercy or wrath.

The 5. day.
Ier. 1. 10.

(e) As fish and wormes, which slide, swimme, or creepe.

(f) Blessing in Scripture signifyeth abundance: that is, he gaue them fruitefulness by his worde.

The 6. day.
The assurance of his abundance.

(g) Moses speaketh in the plurall number, signifying many persons to be made in God, & that the father in the creation of man, consulted with his wife, dome & spirit.

And

and of every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.

(h) This Image & likeness of God in man is expounded, where it is written that man was created after God, in righteousness and true holiness, meaning by these two words, all perfection, as immortality, wisdom, such innocence, power, &c.

Heb. hath a living soule.

(a) No more of creatures are to be looked for: yet God still continually governeth and preserveth all things. Ioh. 18. Erod. 20. b. Heb. 4. a. (b) The first day was consecrated to the service of God, for man in his perfect state.

27 So God created man in his (h) owne image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God sayde unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and have dominion of the fische of the Sea, and fowle of the ayre, and of every living thing that moveth upon the earth:

29 And God sayde, Beholde, I have given you every beaste bearyng seede, which is in the upper face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruite of a tree, bearyng seede, that they may be meate unto you:

30 And every beast of the earth also, and to every byrde of the ayre, and to every luche thing that creepeth upon the earth, which is of the live, I have given every greene herbe for meate: and it was so.

31 And God sawe every thing that he had made: and behold, it was exceeding good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

The .ij. Chapter.

1 The day of rest is blessed: 2. A repeating of things foretolde in the first. 3. The cloude from the earth, is a well to water it. 4. He re-heapeth agayne the saluonyng of man. 5. Martin the paradise of pleasure. 6. The wood of lyfe, the wood of knowledge. 7. 11. 12. 13. 14. The rivers name. 15. God forbidderh man the tree of knowledge of good & euill. 16. Adigheth names vnto all living things. 17. M. Woman is created. 18. The institution of holy marriage.

2 And the earth was without forme, and void, and darkness was upon the face of the deep, and the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

3 And God said, Let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night.

5 And the evening and the morning were the first day.

6 And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and God called the firmament Heaven.

8 And God said, Let the waters under the firmament be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appeare: and it was so.

9 And God called the dry land Earth, and the gathering together of the waters he called Seas: and God blessed the Earth, and said, Unto the Earth, bring forth living creatures, according to thy kinde: and the beast of the Earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowle of the air, according to their kinde, shall be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth.

10 And God said, Let the Earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinde: the Cattel of the Earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowle of the air, according to their kinde, shall be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth.

11 And God said, Let the Earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinde: the Cattel of the Earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowle of the air, according to their kinde, shall be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth.

12 And God said, Let the Earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinde: the Cattel of the Earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowle of the air, according to their kinde, shall be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth.

13 And God said, Let the Earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinde: the Cattel of the Earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowle of the air, according to their kinde, shall be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth.

14 And God said, Let the Earth bring forth living creatures according to their kinde: the Cattel of the Earth, and the creeping thing, and the fowle of the air, according to their kinde, shall be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the Earth.

earth, neither (was there) a man to till the grounde.

6 But there went by a mist from the earth, & watered the whole face of the grounde.

7 The Lord God also did shape man, (euē) (c) dust from of the grounde, and breathed into his noethrilles the breath of life, and man was a living soule.

8 And the Lord God (d) planted a garden eastwarde in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had shapē.

9 Forthout, out of the grounde made the Lord God to grow (e) every tree that was saye to sight, and pleasant to cate: The tree of life in the midst of the garden, and the tree of (g) knowledge of good & euill.

10 And out of Eden there went forth a floud to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, & became into foure heads.

11 The name of the firste is Pison, the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of (h) Babilon, where there is golde:

12 And the golde of the lande is very good. There is also Beellin, & the Onire stone.

13 The name of the second river is Euphrat: the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of (i) Ethiopia.

14 The name of the thirde river is Tigris, and it goeth towarde the East side of Assyria: & the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God toke the man, and put him in the garden of Eden, that he might (k) worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God (l) commaunded the man, saying, Eating, thou shalt eate of every tree of the garden:

17 But as touching the tree of knowledge of good and euill: thou shalt not eate of it: For in what day thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye the death.

18 And the Lord God sayde, It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make him an (m) helpe like unto him.

19 And so out of the grounde the Lord God had shapē every beaste of the fild, and every soule of the ayre, and brought it unto man, that he might see how he shoulde call it: For lykethe as man him selfe named every living thing, euen so was the name thereof.

20 And the man (o) gaue names to al cattel, and fowle of the ayre, and every beaste of the fild: but for man founde he not an helpe lyke unto him.

21 The Lord God caused a deep sleepe to fall upon Adam, and he slept, and he tooke one of his ribbes, and closed up the place with the fle, in steede of it.

22 And the ribbe which the Lord God had of Adam. Man is appoynted to labour.

1 And the Serpent was subtiler than e-uery beast of the field whiche the Lord God had made, and he sayde vnto the woman, Pea, hath (a) God sayde, ye shall not eate of euery tree of the garden?

2 And the woman sayde vnto the Serpent, We eate of the fruite of the trees of the garden.

3 But as for the fruite of the tree, which is in the middes of the garde, God hath sayd, Ye shall not eate of it, neyther shall ye touche of it, (b) lest peradventure ye die.

4 And the serpent sayde vnto the woman,
Ye shall (c) not die the death.

5 For God doth knowe, that the same day that ye eate thereof, your eyes shall be opened, & (d) ye shall be euen as goddes, knowyng good and euill.

6 And so the woman, seying that the same tree was good to eate of, and pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, tooke of the fruite thereof, and did (e) eate, and gaue also vnto his husband beyng with hyr, and he did eate.

7 (f) Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked,
and they sewed (g) figge leaues together,
and made themselves apenes.

8 And they heard the voyce of the Lord God, walkyng in the garden in the coole of the day: and Adam and his wife (h) hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the Lord called Adam, and sayd vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Whiche sayde, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afraide, (i) because I was naked, and hid my selfe.

11 And he sayde, Who tolde thee, that thou wast naked? Haste thou not eaten of the same tree, concerning the whiche I commaunded thee, that thou shouldest not eate
of it?

12 And Adam sayde, The woman whome thou gavest (to be) with me, (k) she gaue me of the tree, and I did eate.

13 And the Lord God sayde vnto the woman, "Why hast thou done this? And the woman sayde, The Serpent beguyled mee
and I did eate.

14 And the Lord God sayde vnto the (l) serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattell, and above euery beast of the fildes: vpon thy belly shalt thou goe, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life.

15 I will also put (m) enmitie betwene thee and the woman, betwene thy seede and hir seede: (n) it shall treade downe thy head, and thou shalt treade vpon his heele.

16 But vnto the woman he sayde, (o) I will breyne muche multiply thy sorrowe, and thy griefes of chyldre bearyng, In sorrow shalt thou bryng forth chyldren: thy desire (shal be) to thy husband, and he shall haue the rule of thee.

17 Vnto Adam he sayde, Because thou hast hearkened vnto (p) the voyce of thy wyfe, and hast eaten of the tree concerning the whiche I commaunded thee, sayng, Thou shalt not eate of it, cursed is the grounde for thy sake, in sorrow shalt thou eate of it al the
dayes of thy life.

18 Thow also and thistle shall it bryng forth
(q) to thee, and thou shalt eate the hearbe of the fildes.

19 In the sweate of thy face shalt thou eate thy bread, till thou be turned agayne into the grounde, for out of it wast thou taken:
for dust thou art, and into dust shalt thou be turned agayne.

20 And Adam called his wyfes (r) name Heua, because she was the mother of al liuing.

21 Vnto Adam also and to his wyfe did the Lord God (s) make garments of skynnes, and he put them on.

22 And the Lord God sayde, Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, (t) in knowyng good and euill: And now lest peradventure he put forth his hande, and take also of the tree of lyfe, and eate, and lyue foreuer. (v)

23 Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to worke the grounde whence he was taken.
