

The first booke of Moses,

called in Hebrew, of the first woorde of the booke,

(^a) Bereschith, and in Greeke (^b) Genesis.

(^a) That is, In the beginning.

(^b) That is, generation, or creation.

The first Chapter.

1. Howe heauen and earth, 3. the lyght, 6. the firmament, 16. the sunne, the moone, the starres, 21. and fiffhes in the sea, 24. and all beastes, and foules, were made by the worde of God, 26. & how man also was created.

(^a) Although the woordes of God, both in the creation, and in his spirituall operation in man, seeme rude and imperfect at the first, yet God by the working of his holy spirit, bringeth all things to a perfection at the end.

(^b) The confused heape of heauen & earth was imperfect, and darke, and yet not utterly dead, but was endued with the power and strength of gods spirit, and so made himselfe, to continue vnto the worlds ende.

IN the begynnyng 6 GOD created the heauen & the earth.

And the earth was 7 without forme, & was voyde: & darke- nesse (was) vpon the face of the deepe, and the (^c) spirit of God 8 mooued vpon the face of the waters.

And God sayde, Let there be lyght: and there was lyght.

And God saw the lyght that it was good: and God diuided the lyght from the darke- nesse.

And God called the lyght, Day, and the darkenes, Night: and the euening and the morning were the first day.

And God sayde, Let there be a "firma- ment betweene the waters, & let it make a diuision betweene waters and waters.

And God made the firmament, and let a diuision betweene the waters which (were) vnder: (^c) the firmament, and the waters that (were) aboue the firmament; and it was so.

And God called the firmament, the Hea- uen: and the euening and the morning were the seconde day.

And God sayd, Let the waters vnder the heauen be geathered together into one place, and let the drye lande appeare: and it was so.

And God called the drye land the Earth, and the geathering together of waters called he the Seas: and God saw that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede, and fruitefull trees, yeeldyng fruite after his kynde, whiche hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede after his kynde, and tree yeeldyng fruite, which had seede in it selfe, after his kynde.

13 And God sawe that it was good. And the euening and the morning were the thyrde day.

14 And God sayde, Let there be lyghtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may diuide the day and the night, and let them be for (d) signes, and seasons, and for dayes, and yeeres.

15 And let them be for lyghtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may geue lyght vpon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lyghtes: a greater lyght to rule the day, and a lesse lyght to rule the night, & (he made) starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth,

18 And to rule the day and the night, and to make difference betweene the lyght and the darknesse: and God sawe that it was good.

19 And the euening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God sayde, Let the waters bring forth (e) moouyng creature that hath lyfe, and foule that may flee vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen.

21 And God created great whales, and every lyuyng and moouyng creature, whiche the waters brought forth after theyr kynde, and every feathered foule after theyr kynde: and God sawe that it was good.

22 And God (f) blessed them, sayeing, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and fyll the waters of the sea, and let foule multiply in the earth.

23 And the euening and morning were the fyfth day.

24 And God sayde, Let the earth bring forth lyuyng creature after his kynd, cat-tel, worme, and beastes of the earth after his kynde: and it was so.

25 God made the beast of the earth after his kynde, and cattel after his kynde, and every thyng that creepeth vpon the earth after his kynd: and God sawe that it was good.

26 God sayde, Let vs (g) make man in our image, after our lykenesse, & let them haue rule of the fyshes of the sea, and of the foule of the ayre, and of cattel, & of al the earth, and of every creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth.

27 So God created man in his (h) owne image, in the image of God created he hym, male and female created he thesh.

28 And God blessed them, and God sayde vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and replenishe the earth, and subdue it, and haue dominion of the fyshes of the sea, and foule of the ayre, and of every lyuyng thyng that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God sayde, Beholde, I haue geuen you every hearbe bearyng seede, which is in the vpper face of al the earth, and every tree, in the whiche is the fruite of a tree, bearyng seede, (that) they may be meate vnto you:

30 To every beast of the earth also, and to every byrde of the ayre, and to every luche thyng that creepeth vpon the earth, whiche doth liue, I haue geuen every greene hearbe for meate: and it was so.

31 And God sawe every thyng that he had made: & beholde, it was exceeding good. And the euening and the morning were the sixth day.

and watered the whole face of the ground.

7 The Lord God also dyd shape man, (even) dust from of the ground, and breathed into his nosegayles the breath of life, and man was a living soule.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had shapte.

9 Moreover, out of the ground made the Lord God to growe every tree that was sayre to syght, and pleasaunt to eate: The tree of life in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evyll.

10 And out of Eden there went forth a flood to water the garden, & from thence it was divided, and became into foure heades.

11 The name of the first is Pison, the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of Havilah, where there is gold:

12 And the golde of the lande is very good. There is also Sbellum, and the Onix stone.

13 The name of the second river is Gyon: the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of Ethiopia, 14 The name of the third river is Euphrates, and it goeth toward the East syde of Assyria: and the fourth river is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God tooke the man, and put hym in the garden of Eden, that he myght worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God commaunded the man, saying, Eating, thou shalt eate of every tree of the garden:

17 But as touching the tree of knowledge of good and evyll, thou shalt not eate of it: for in what day soever thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye the death.

18 And the Lord God sayde, It is not good that the man shoulde be alone, I wyll make hym an helpe lyke vnto hym.

19 And so out of the ground the Lord God had shapte every beast of the feelde, and every soule of the ayre, and brought it vnto man, that he might see howe he would cal it. For lyke wyse as man hym selfe named every living thyng, even so was the name thereof.

20 And the man gave names to al cattel, and soule of the ayre, and every beast of the feelde: but for man found he not an helpe lyke vnto hym.

21 The Lord God caused a deepe sleepe to fall bypon Adam, and he sleapt, and he tooke one of his ribbes, and closed by the place with fleshe, in steede thereof.

22 And the ribbe whiche the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her vnto the man.

23 And man sayd, This is now bone of my bones, and fleshe of my fleshe, she shalbe called woman, because shee was taken out of man.

24 For this cause shal man leaue his father and his mother, and shalbe ioyned with his wife: and they shal become one fleshe.

25 And they were both naked, the man and his wyfe: and were not ashamed.
