shall not propose amendments to the Constitution oftener than once in six years. [The remainder of this section originated with this Constitution.] The Legislature shall have the right, at any time, by law to submit to the people the question of calling a convention to alter, reform, or abolish this Constitution; and when, upon such submission, a majority of all the votes cast shall be in favor of said proposition, then delegates shall be chosen, and the convention shall assemble in such mode and manner as shall be prescribed.

Sec. 4. Divorces.—The Legislature shall have no power to grant divorces, but may authorize the courts of justice to grant them for such causes as may be specified by law; but such laws shall be general and uniform in their operation throughout the State.

Sec. 5. Lotteries.—The Legislature shall have no power to authorize lotteries for any purpose, and shall pass laws to prohibit the sale of lottery tickets in this State.

Sec. 6. Changing name, legitimation, etc.—The Legislature shall have no power to change the names of persons, or to pass acts adopting or legitimatizing [legitimating or legitimizing] persons; but shall, by general laws, confer this power on the courts.

Sec. 7. Interest, conventional rate.—The Legislature shall fix the rate of interest, and the rate so established shall be equal and uniform throughout the State; but the Legislature may provide for a conventional rate of interest, not to exceed ten per centum per annum.

Sec. 8. General laws only to be passed; corporations only to be provided for by general laws.—The Legislature shall have no power to suspend any general law for the benefit of any particular individual, nor to pass any law for the benefit of individuals, inconsistent with the general law of the land; nor to pass any law granting to any individual or individuals rights, privileges, immunitie [immunities] or exemptions other than such as may be, by the same law, extended to any member of the community who may be able to bring himself within the provisions of such law. No corporation shall be created, or its powers increased or diminished, by special laws; but the General Assembly shall provide by general laws, for the organization of all corporations hereafter created, which laws may, at any time, be altered or repealed; and no such alteration or repeal shall interfere with or divest rights which have become vested.

Sec. 9. Power over private and local affairs.—The Legislature shall have the right to vest such powers in the courts of justice, with regard to private and local affairs, as may be expedient.

Sec. 10. Internal improvements to be encouraged.—A well-regulated system of internal improvement is calculated to develop the resources of the State, and promote the happiness and prosperity of her citizens; therefore it ought to be encouraged by the General Assembly.

Sec. 11. Homestead exemption.—A homestead, in the possession of each head of a family, and the improvement thereon, to the value, in all, of one thousand dollars, shall be exempt from sale under legal process during the life of such head of a family, to inure to the benefit of the widow, and shall be exempt during the minority of their children occupying the same. Nor shall said property be alienated without the joint consent of husband and wife, when that relation exists. This exemption shall not operate against public taxes, nor
