

and in this manner may Sir Robert Sydney and your self write jointly to Sir Edward Norreis and thereof advertize to us his answear.

More Low Country soldiers for France.

Item, for the choice of the bands with their captens to be had from Bergen [and] from Sir Francis Vere we must leave yt to Sir Thomas Morgan and him, but you shall by your letters jointly to be written from Sir Robert Sydney and yourself require them to advertize you what captens they wil send and how their numbers are full, and if they be not, to move them to cause the captens to make them if they can compleat, and if they cannot, then to advertize you what numbers shal be found to be lacking in every band, so as if need shalbe required som supplies may be made out of England to be sent to Diep, that is to say som hable [men] to be sent thither to whome armour and weapon may be delivered at Diep, with chardge to the captens whose bands they shall supplie to see the same discharged hereafter upon their paies by reasonable porcions monethly.

Item, you shal let all the captens that shalbe appointed to this journey understand that they shall have at their embarquing at Flushing xxth dayes' imprest for them and their bands to make provision for victuals whilst they shalbe on the seas, and as the case shall fall owt to releev them at their landing, where also they shall receive weekly lendings for the time that they shall remain in Fraunce, accordingly as the rest of our nacion which are there.

Item, you shall also let the said captens know that som apparel for them and their bands shalbe ready for them at Diep, and there also such as shalbe sent to supplie their wants shall receive the like apparell with the rest.

* Item, because there is no speciall letters written from her Majestie to any capten of you

---

* An unfinished entry, the rest of the page being blank.

p. 335.

At the Court at Greenwich the xijth of May, 1592.

Present :

Lord Archbishop of Canterbury. Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Treasurer. Lord Buckhurst.

Lord Admiral. Mr. Wolley.

Sympathy with offenders in Wales.

A letter to Hugh Lewes and William Lewes. Whereas one Foulk Thomas hath enformed us that he having apprehended of late certain suspected persons and a preist at Hollihead hath bin at his retourn into the country abused and offered violences by John Loid, Morgan Mathew, David ap William ap Morgan, David and Robert Peppert for doing her Majesty's service, we have therefore thought good to pray and require you to examine duly this matter, and if the informacion shall fall owt to be trew of this their abuse, you shall by vertue hereof cause them to be apprehended or committed to prison, and if any other shal go about to offer violence to the said Foulks you shall see them severly punished and take order that the said Foulk Thomas may not in any kinde of sort be injured or molested, having deserved to be favored in respect of his dutifull endeavour to apprehend these lewd persons. Where also yt doth appeare to us by the examinacions sent up hither that the baylif of Lyvon, named John ap William, and the constable there called Hugh ap Robert ap Erwerth, and one Morris ap David Grame did not onely refuse at the time of the apprehencion of the said persons at Hollihead to give their assistance to the said Foulk, but used divers undutifull and lewd speeches to discourage others, whereby som escaped, these shalbe to require you to take good bonds of them to her Majesty's use to make your (sic) present repaires to the Court to answear those their misdemeanours before us, and herein praieng you to take order accordingly, we.

Delay of justice in Jersey.

A letter to the Bailifs (sic) and Jurats of Jerzie. Whereas we are enformed that Clodius Boullain, a merchant of St. Malloves in Britaign and of late by reason of the troubles in those parts withdrawn him self into that Island for the space of these six moneths, he (sic) hath prosecuted the recovery of a certain debt due unto him, as is alleadged, by one Thomas Martin of that Island before you the Bailif and Jurats there, of whome notwithstanding, if we be truly enformed, he cannot obtain that expedicion as in reason were meet, considering his cause is said to be very cleare and manifest and that he is the subject of the French King, whose wel doing and good estate her Majesty taketh so neer to hart as your selves cannot be ignorant of. We have thought good therefore to require and chardge you forthwith upon sight hereof duly and summarily to examin the truth of the said cause so depending before you, and thereupon to expedit justice in such sort as shalbe agreeable with the customes and ordinances of that Island, that the suppliant may have no farther cause to trouble us herewith, whereof we require you there may be no default. And so, &c.

A letter to the Vicepresident of the Counsel of the Marches of Wales. Whereas we are enformed that notwithstanding sondry our former letters written unto you signifieng the order and end we had made and set down upon the deliberat hearing of all the matters in controversie betwixt you Sir Thomas Throckmorton, and Mr. Nicholas Pointz exhibited before us at this Counsel Bord with your mutual consentes, both of you being then present, there hath yet bin farther prosecution of those matters before you the Counsell there, and proces awarded out therein against the said Pointes (as we are enformed). We do therefore think good to require you immediatly upon sight hereof to take strict order that those olde matters so determined by us be no further prosecuted against the said Pointes, or to make stay thereof before you til Pointz shal have the proceedings in this cause sifted and heard in the Star Chamber here, which in case of your refusall in justice we may not deny him, being thereunto very often importuned. And so praieng you to have

p. 336.

Sir T Throgmorton and Nicholas Poyntz.