32 He that refuseth instruction, despiseth his owne soule: but he that heareth reproofe, † getteth vnderstanding.

33 The feare of the LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and * before honour is humilitie.

CHAP. XVI.

The * preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the tongue, is from the LORD.

2 * All the wayes of a man are cleane in his owne eyes: but the LORD weigheth the spirits.

3 * † Commit thy workes vnto the LORD, and thy thoughts shalbe established.

4 The LORD hath made all things for himselfe: * yea, euen the wicked for the day of euill.

5 * Every one that is proud in heart, is an abomination to the LORD: though hand ioyne in hand, he shall not be † unpunished.

6 By mercy and truth iniquitie is purged: and by the feare of the LORD, men depart from euill.

7 When a mans wayes please the LORD, he maketh euen his enemies to be at peace with him.

8 * Better is a little with righteousness, then great reueniues without right.

9 * A mans heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps.

10 † A diuine sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in iudgement.

11 * A iust weight and ballance are the LORDS: † all the weights of the bagge are his worke.

12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickednesse: for the throne is established by righteousness.

13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings: and they loue him that speaketh right.

14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death: but a wise man will pacifie it.

15 In the light of the kings countenance is life, and * his fauour is as a cloude of the latter raine.

16 * How much better is it to get wisdom, then gold: and to get vnderstanding, rather to be chosen then silver:

17 The high way of the vpright is to depart from euill: hee that keepeth his way, preferueth his soule.

18 * Proude goeth before destruction: and an haucie spirit before a fall.

19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, then to diuide the spoile with the proud.

20 He that handleth a matter wisely, shall finde good: and who so * trusteth in the LORD, happy is hee.

21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetnesse of the lips increaseth learning.

22 * Understanding is a well-spring of life vnto him that hath it: but the instruction of fooles is folly.

23 The heart of the wise † teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lippes.

24 Pleasant words are as an honey-combe, sweete to the soule, and health to the bones.

25 * There is a way that seemeth right vnto a man: but the end thereof are the wayes of death.

26 † Hee that laboureth, laboureth for himselfe: for his mouth † craueth it of him.

27 † An vngodly man diggeth by euill: and in his lips there is as a burning fire.

28 * A forward man † soweth strife; & a whisperer separateth chiefe friends.

29 A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is not good.

30 He shutteth his eyes to deuise forward things: moouing his lips he bringeth euill to passe.

31 The hoary head is a crowne of glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness.

32 He that is slow to anger, is better then the mighty: and he that ruleth his spirit, then he that taketh a citie.

33 The lot is cast into the lap: but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

CHAP. XVII.

4 A wicked doer giueth heed to false lips: and a liar giueth care to a naughty tongue.

5 *Whoso mocketh the poore, reproacheth his maker: and he that is glad at calamities, shall not be unpunished.

6 *Childrens children are the crowne of old men: and the glory of children are their fathers.

7 *Excellent speech becommeth not a foole: much lesse doe lying lippes a prince.

8 *A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that hath it: Whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth.

9 *He that couereth a transgression, seeketh loue: but he that repeatedly a matter, separateth very friends.

10 *A reproofe entreth more into a wise man, then an hundred stripes into a foole.

11 An euill man seeketh onely rebellion: therefore a cruell messenger shall be sent against him.

12 Let a beare robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather then a foole in his folly.

13 *Whoso rewardeth euill for good, euill shall not depart from his house.

14 The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out water: therefore leaue off contention, before it be medled with.

15 *He that iustifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the iust: euen they both are abomination to the LORD.

16 *Wherefore is there a price in the hand of a foole to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it?

17 *A friend loueth at all times, and a brother is bozne for aduersitie.

18 *A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becommeth suretie in the presence of his friend.

19 He loueth transgression, that loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate, seeketh destruction.

20 *He that hath a froward heart, findeth no good, and he that hath a peruerse tongue, falleth into mischief.

21 *He that begetteth a foole, doth it to his sorrow: and the father of a foole hath no ioy.

22 *A merrie heart doth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit drieth the bones.

23 A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosome, to peruert the wayes of iudgement.

24 *Wisdom is before him that hath vnderstanding: but the eyes of a foole are in the ends of the earth.

25 *A foolish sonne is a griefe to his father, & bitterness to her that bare him.

26 Also to punish the iust is not good, nor to strike princes for equitie.

27 *He that hath knowledge, spareth his words: and a man of vnderstanding is of an excellent spirit.

28 *Euen a foole, when he holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips, is esteemed a man of vnderstanding.

CHAP. XVIII.

Through desire a man hauing separated himselfe, seeketh and intermedleth with all wisdom.

2 A foole hath no delight in vnderstanding, but that his heart may discouer it selfe.

3 When the wicked commeth, then commeth also contempt, and with ignominie, reproch.

4 *The words of a mans mouth, are as deepe waters, and the well-spring of wisdom as a flowing brooke.

5 *It is not good to accept the person of the wicked, to ouerthrowe the righteous in iudgement.

6 A foolles lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.

7 *A foolles mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soule.

8 *The words of a tale bearer are as wounds, and they goe downe into the innermost parts of the belly.

9 Hee also that is slouthful in his worke, is brother to him that is a great waster.

10 *The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.

11 *The rich mans wealth is his strong citie: and as an high wall in his owne conceit.

12 *Before destruction the heart of man is haughtie, and before honour is humilitie.

13 He that answereth a matter before he heareth it, it is folly and shame vnto him.

Wine is a mocker, strong drinke is raging: and whosoever is deceived thereby, is not wise.

2 * The feare of a king, is as the roaring of a Lion: who so prouoketh him to anger, sinneth against his owne soule.

3 It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but euery foole will be meddling.

4 * The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold: therefore shall he begge in haruest, and haue nothing.

5 * Counsell in the heart of man is like deepe water: but a man of vnderstanding will draw it out.

6 Host men will proclaim euery one his owne goodnes: but a faithfull man who can finde?

7 The iust man walketh in his integrity: * his children are blessed after him.

8 A king that sitteth in the throne of iudgement, scattereth away all euill with his eyes.

9 * Who can say, I haue made my heart cleane, I am pure from my sinne: 10 * † Diuers weights, and diuers † measures, both of them are alike abomination to the LORD.

21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning: but the ende thereof shall not be blessed.

22 * Say not thou, I will recompence euil: but wait on the LORD, and he shall saue thee.

23 * Diuers waights are an abomination vnto the LORD: and a false ballance is not good.

24 * Mans goings are of the LORD: how can a man then vnderstand his owne way?

25 It is a snare to the man who deuoureth that which is holy: and after bolues, to make inquirie.

26 * A wise king scattereth the wicked, & bringeth the wheele ouer them.

27 The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly.

27 * For an whore is a deepe ditch; and a strange woman is a narrow pit.

28 * She also lyeth in wait as for a pray, and increaseth the transgressours among men.

29 * Who hath woe: Who hath sorrow: Who hath contentions: Who hath babbling: Who hath wounds without cause: Who hath rednesse of eyes:

30 They that tarry long at the wine, they that goe to seeke mixt wine.

31 Looke not thou vpon the wine when it is red, when it giueth his colour in the cup, when it moueth it selfe aright.

32 At the last it biteth like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder.

33 Thine eyes shall behold strange women, and thine heart shall utter peruerse things.

34 Peca thou shalt be as he that lyeth downe in the midst of the sea, or as he that lyeth vpon the top of a mast.

35 They haue stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sicke: they haue beaten me, and I felt it not: When shall I awake: I will seeke it yet againe.

C H A P. XXIII.

BE not thou * enuious against euill men, neither desire to be with them.

2 * For their heart sturdieth destruction, and their lippes talke of mischief.

3 Through wisdom is an house builded, and by vnderstanding it is established.

4 And by knowledge shall the chambers bee filled with all precious and pleasant riches.

5 A wise man is strong, yea a man of knowledge increaseth strength.

6 * For by wise counsell thou shalt make thy warre: and in multitude of counsellors there is safetie.

7 Wisdom is too high for a foole: he openeth not his mouth in the gate.

8 He that deuileth to doe euill, shall be called a mischieuous person.

9 The thought of foolishnesse is sinne: and the scorner is an abomination to men.

10 If thou faunt in the day of aduersitie, thy strength is small:

11 * If thou forbear to deliuer them that are drawen vnto death, and those that are ready to be slaine:

12 If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not: doth not he that pondereth the heart, consider it? and he that keepeth thy soule, doth not he know it? and shall not hee render to euery man according to his workes:

13 * My sonne, eate thou honic, because it is good, and the honic combe, which is swete to thy taste.

14 So shall the knowledge of wisdom be vnto thy soule: when thou hast found it, * then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off.

15 Lay not waite, (O wicked man) against the dwelling of the righteous: spoile not his resting place.

16 * For a iust man falleth seuen times, and riseth vp againe: but the wicked shall fall into mischief.

17 * Reioyce not when thine enemy falleth: and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth:

18 Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and hee turne away his wrath from him.

19 * Fret not thy selfe because of euill men: neither be thou enuious at the wicked.

20 * For there shall be no reward to the euill man: the candle of the wicked shall be put out.

21 My sonne, feare thou the LORD, and the king: and meddle not with them that are giuen to change.

22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly, and who knoweth the ruine of them both:

23 These things also belong to the wise: * It is not good to haue respect of persons in iudgement.

24 * He that sayth vnto the wicked, Thou art righteous, him shall the people curse; nations shall abhorre him:

25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come vpon them.

26 Euery man shall kisse his lippes that giueth a right answere.

27 Prepare thy worke without, and make it fit for thy selfe in the field; and afterwards build thine house.

he hath done to mee: I will render to the man according to his worke.

30 I went by the field of the slouthfull, and by the vineyard of the man boyd of vnderstanding:

31 And loe, it was all growen ouer with thornes, and nettles had couered the face thereof, and the stone wall therof was broken downe:

32 Then I saib, and I considered it well, I looked vpon it, and receiued instruction.

33 * Yet a little sleepe, a little slumber, a little folding of the handes to sleepe:

34 So shall thy pouertie come, as one that traueileth, and thy want, as an armed man.

CHAP. XXV.

1 Obseruations about Kings, 8 and about auoyding causes of quarrels, and sundry causes thereof.

These are also Proverbes of Solomon, which the men of hezekiah king of Iudah copied out.

2 It is the glory of God to conceale a thing: but the honour of Kings is to search out a matter.

3 The heauen for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of Kings is vnsearchable.

4 Take away the drosse from the silver, and there shall come forth a vessel for the finer.

5 * Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.

6 † Put not forth thy selfe in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men.

7 * For better it is that it be said vnto thee, Come by hither; then that thou shouldest be put lower in the presence of the Prince whom thine eyes haue seene.

8 Goe not forth hastily to strue, lest thou know not what to doe in the ende thereof, when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame.

9 * Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himselfe; and † discouer not a secret to another:

10 Lest he that heareth it, put thee to shame, and thine infamie turne not away.

11 A word † fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures of silver.

12 As an eare-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprouer vpon an obedient eare.

13 * As the cold of snow in the time of haruest, so is a faithfull messenger to them that send him: for hee refresheth the soule of his masters.

14 Who so boasteth himselfe † of a false gift, is like cloudes and winde without raine.

15 * By long forbearing is a Prince perswaded, and a soft tongue breaketh the bone.

16 Hast thou found hony: eate so much as is sufficient for thee: lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it.

17 † Withdraw thy foote from thy neighbours house: lest he be † weary of thee, and so hate thee.

18 A man that beareth false witnes against * his neighbour, is a maul, and a sword, and a sharpe arrow.

19 Confidence in an vnfaithfull man in time of trouble, is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of ioynt.

20 As hee that taketh away a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar vpon mire, so is he that singeth songs to an heauy heart.

21 * If thine enemy be hungry, giue him bread to eate: and if hee be thirstie, giue him water to drinke.

22 For thou shalt heape coales of fire vpon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

23 † The North winde driueth away raine: so doeth an angrie countenance a backbiting tongue.

24 * It is better to dwell in a corner of the house top, then with a brawling woman, and in a wide house.

25 As cold waters to a thirstie soule: so is good newes from a farre country.

26 A righteous man falling downe before the wicked, is as a troubled fountain, and a corrupt spring.

27 It is not good to eat much hony: so for men to search their owne glory, is not glory.

28 * Hee that hath no rule ouer his owne spirit, is like a citie that is broken downe, and without walles.

curse causelesse shall not come.

3 * A whip for the horse, a badle for the asse: and a rod for the foolers backe.

4 Answer not a foole according to his folly, lest thou also be like vnto him.

5 Answer a foole according to his folly, lest hee be wise in † his owne conceit.

6 He that sendeth a message by the hand of a foole, cutteth off the feete, and damnieth himselfe.

7 The legges of the lame † are not equal: so is a parable in the mouth of fooles.

8 As hee that bindeth a stone in a sling, so is hee that giueth honour to a foole.

9 As a thorne goeth vp into the hand of a drunkard: so is a parable in the mouth of foolers.

10 The great God that formed all things, both rewardeth the foole, and rewardeth transgressours.

11 * As a dogge returneth to his vomited: so a foole † returneth to his folly.

12 Seekest thou a man wise in his owne conceit: there is more hope of a foole then of him.

13 * The slothfull man sayeth, There is a lion in the way, a lion is in the streets.

14 As the doore turneth vpon his hinges: so doeth the slothfull vpon his bedde.

15 * The slothfull hideth his hand in his bosome, † it grieueth him to bring it again to his mouth.

16 The sluggard is wiser in his owne conceit, then seven men that can render a reason.

17 He that passeth by, and † medleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh a dog by the eares.

18 As a mad man, who casteth † fire-brands, arrowes, and death:

19 So is the man that deceiueth his neighbour, & sayeth, Am not I in sport?

20 † Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: so † where there is no † tale-bearer, the strife † ceaseth.

21 * As coales are to burning coales, and wood to fire: so is a contentious man to kindle strife.

22 * The words of a tale-bearer are as woundes, and they goe dolvne into the † innermost parts of the belly.

23 Burning lips, and a wicked heart, are like a potsherd couered with siluer drosse.

24 Hee that hateth, † dissembleth with his lips, and layeth by deceit within him.

25 When he † speaketh faire, beleeue him not: for there are seuen abominations in his heart.

26 † Whole hatred is couered by deceit, his wickednesse shall be shewed before the whole congregation.

27 * Whoso diggeth a pit, shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will returne vpon him.

28 A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it, and a flattering mouth worketh ruine.

CHAP. XXVII.

11 of care to avoid offences: 23 and of the householde care.

BAST not thy selfe of † to

2 Let another man

3 A stone is † heauie, and the sand uier then them both.

4 † Wrath is cruell, and anger is out-
