

Receipt of Collector
a sufficient Assurance, &c.

concerning the Articles of the said Commission of Sewers, shalbe gathered and lervyd by distresse or otherwise like manner and forme as shall or maye be done in the Lord's writt and heretofore of any other poon or poe And that all bills of acceptaunce signed with the hande or hande of such Collector or Receyvor as shall have collection thereof, by the appoyntment of the said Commissioners or one of them, shalbe sweall a sufficient discharge to the Tenantes fermors and occupers of the same Groundes so to be charged for the said adme wherewith : grounde shalbe so charged, as also a sufficient warrante to all and everie the Receyvers Auditors and a whatsoever officer or officers of our said Sovereigne Lorde the Kinge his heires and successors for the allowaunce such Tenantes fermor or occupier for the same.

III.
Like Fees as Commissioners under the Duchy Seal as in other Cases.

ADDINGS moreover to this Acte by vactorie of this present Parliament, that suche and like fees and none other more shalbe at anye tyme payde or demanded for any Commission or Commissions or writt of dedim^{us} potestas hereafter to be sued out or obtained under the Seale of the Duchie, but onelye suche and lyke fees as are mentioned in the said former Acte to be paid in the Chancerye for Commissions and writt of dedim^{us} potestas be obtained from the same Corte of Chancerye.

IV.
Every Commission
shall continue for Five Yeres.

ADDINGS moreover therunto by thastorie aforesaid, that everie Commission and Commissions hereafter to be awarded for Sewers shall continue and endure for terme of fyve yeres next after the Teme of suche Commissions unless the same Commission and Commissions shalbe otherwise discharged within the said tyme by Seignod Any thinge or thinges mentioned or conveyed in the said former Acte contrary to the additions before made or anye of them in anye wise notwithstanding.

CHAPTER IX.

AN ACTS for the buyinge of Raws Hydes and Calfs Skynnes.

High Price of Leather resulting from the exporting
of raw Hides;

FORASMUCHE as Leather is grown to an unreasonable price, whereby the King's Subject are not able at this tyme to pynde themselves such necessaries thereof made as Shoes and Boot and suche lyke at anye reason price, as they heretofore have done, to the utter ymprovement of diverse the Kinge lovinge and obedient Subj which said unreasonable prices of Leather doth onelye growe and ryse by reason of the unassurable desire of d and sondry poons, bringe noe Tanners, whiche daylye in everie Market and other place buy and regrate grene h in the heare and out of the heare to their handes, to thintent to sell the same to their owne lucre and gay Be it therefore enacted by the Kinge our Sovereigne Lorde the Lordes spiritual and temporall and the Comons in present Parliament assembled and by thastorie of the same, that noe poon or poons within this Realme, shall and after the feast of the Assuacion of our Ladye next comynge, buy or cause to be bought anye Calfe Skynne Hydes, in the heare or out of the heare, to thintent to sell agayne the same untanned, except onelye suche poon poons as will tanne or tawe the same, upon payne to forfeyte for everie Skynne so bought, to the intent to sell ag aforesaid, sixe shilling eight pence; the one halfe of whiche forfeiture to be unto our Sovereigne Lorde the K the other halfe to him or them that will sue for the same in anye the King's Court by bill playne or a lawfull pence, wherein noe pecton or wager of Lawe nor yet any Ensoyne to the partie defendants shalbe alle or admittid.

None shall buy raw Hides or Hides to sell again untanned,
Penalty 6s. 8d.
per Skin.

CHAPTER X.

AN ACTS for the abolishinge and puttinge awaye of diverse Bookes and Images.

The Book of Common Prayer
having been lately
established;

WHEREAS the King's most Excellent Majestie hath of late setforthe and established by auctorite of Parliam an unforme quyett and godlye ordre for comon and open Prayer, in a Booke intituled, The Booke of Co Prayer and Administracion of the Sacrament and other Rites and Ceremonies of the Church after the Church Englands, to be used and observed in the said Church of Englands, agreeable to thordre of the prymative Chur moche more conformable unto his lovinge Subject then other diverse of vice as heretofore of longe tyme hath used, beinge in the said Booke ordeyned nothinge to be redd but the verie pure worde of God, or whiche is evid grounded upon the same, And in the other thinge corrupte untrue wayne and suspicious, and as it were a pyraus suspition, whiche for that they be not called in but mytted to remayne undeficed, doe not onelye give occasione such pervers poons as doe ympage the ordre and godlye mannyng of the King's said Booke of Comon Praye continue in their olde accustomed suspicious vices, but also mynister greut occasion to diverse of opynions r ceremonies and vices: Be it therefore enacted by the Kinge our Sovereigne Lorde the Lordes spiritual and temp and the Comons in this present Parliament assembled, that all Book called Antiphons Myrales Scrybles Precious Manacles Legende Fyve Portrayes Prymarys in Latyn or Englishe Cowchers Journales Ordinales, or other book writting whatsoever heretofore used for vice of the Church, written or prynted in the Englishe or La tongue, other then suche as are or shalbe setforthe by the King's Majestie, shalbe by vactorie of this present clausye and untrulye abolished extinguished and forbidden for ever to be used or kepte in this Realme or elles w within any the King's Dominions.

Books and other Books of Church Service, formerly used, shall be abolished.

AND Be it further enacted by thautoricie aforeside, that yf anye parson or parsons of what estate degree or condition soever he she or they be, bodie Polytique or Corporate, that now have or hereafter shall have in his her or their custodye anye the Book^e or writing^e of the sort^e aforesaid, or anye Images of Stone Tymbre Alieblaster or Earthe graven carved or paynted, whiche heretofore have bene taken out of anye Church or Chappell, or yett stande in anye Church or Chappell, and doe not before the laste daye of June next ensuyng deface and destroye or cause to be defaced and destroyed the same Imag^e and everie of them, and delyver or cause to be delivered all and everie the same Bookes to the Mayor Baylyf Constable or Church wardyns of the Towne where suche Book^e then shalbe, to be by them delyvered over openlye within thre monethes next followinge after the saide deliverie to the Archebushopp^e Bushopp^e Chauncellor or Cōmynarie of the same Dioces, to thintent the saide Archebushopp^e Bushopp^e Chauncellor or Cōmynarie and everie of them cause them ymediatlye eyther to be openlye brent or otherwayes defaced and destroyed, shall for everie suche Book^e or Book^e willinglye retayned in his her or their hand^e or custodye within this Realme or elsewhere within anye the King^e Dnyons, and not delivered as ys aforeside after the saide laste daye of June, and he thereof laufullye convicte, forfeyte and loose to the Kinge our Sovereigne Lorde for the fyrr Offence twentie shilling^e, and for the seconde Offence shall forfeyte and lose beinge thereof laufullye convicte fower poundes, and for the thirde Offence shall suffre ymprisonment at the King^e will.

AND Be it further enacted by thautoricie aforeside, That yf anye Mayors Baylyfes Constables or Church Wardyns doe not, within thre monethes after the receipte of the same book^e, deliver or cause to be delivered suche book^e soe by them receyved to the Archebushopp^e Bushopp^e Chauncellor or Cōmynarie of their Dioces, and yf the saide Archebushopp^e Bushopp^e Chauncellors or Cōmynaries do not within fortye dayes after the receipte of suche book^e, burne deface and destroye or cause to be burned defaced or destroyed the same book^e and everie of them, that then they and ev^{ry} of them so offendinge shall lose and forfeyte to our Sovereigne Lords the Kinge, beinge therefore laufullye convicte, fortye poundes; Thone halfe of all suche forfeitures shalbe to anye of the King^e Subject^e that will sue for the same in anye of the King^e Court^e of Records by bill playnte action of debate or informacōn, in whiche accōn no esoygne greecōn wager of lawe or other delaye shalbe allowed.

AND for better execucon of the same Acte, Be it enacted by thautoricie aforeside, That newell Justices of Amise in their Circuyte as Justic^e of Peace within the lymyt^e of their Cōmynion in the geshall Sessions, shall have full power and autoritie to enquire of thoffenc^e aforesaid and to heare and determyne the same, in suche forme as they maye doe in other suche lyke cases.

(¹) PROVIDED always and be it enacted by thautoricie aforeside, That anye poon or poons maye use kepe have and retyne anye Prymary in the Englishe or Latyne tongue set forth by the late Kinge of famous memorie Kinge Henrie thight; so that the sentenc^e of Invocacōn or Prayer to Sainct^e, in the same prymary be blotted or clereyde put out of the same; anye thinge in this Acte to the contrarye notwithstandinge.

PROVIDED always, That this Acte or anye thinge therein conteyned shall not extend to anye Image or Picture sett or given upon anye Tombe in anye Church Chappell or Church Yarde, onelye for a Monument of anye Kinge Prince Noblesman or other dead poon, whiche hath not bene comonlye repated and taken for a Saincte; but that suche Pictur^e and Imag^e maye stande and continue in like manner and founne as yf this Acte had never bene had nor made; anye thinge in this Acte to the contrarye in anye wise notwithstandinge.

CHAPTER XL (¹)

AN ACTS that the King^e Ma^{ty} maye nominat xxxij poons to passe and make Ecclesiastical Lawes.

ALBEIT the King^e most Excellent Majestie, Godho^o and Ruler under God of this Realme, ought most justly to have the govtment of his Subject^e and the definicion of their causes newell Ecclesiastical as Tempall, yett the same, as concernyng Ecclesiastical causes, haveyng not of long tyme ben put in ure nor enclayved by the reason of the usurped auctorite of the Byshop of Rome, be not pfectly understood nor knownen of his Subject^e, and therefore of necessarye newell for the abolishing and putting to utter oblyvion the said usurped auctorite, as for the necessarye admystracion of Justice to his lovinge Subject^e, Yt maye please his Highnes that yt maye be enacted by his most gracios assent wth the assent of the Lord^e sp^{ea}ll and tempall and the Cōmēns of this p^{re}sēt p^{ar}liamt assembled and by auctorite of the same, that the King^e Majestie shall from henceforth duringe thre yeres have full power auctorite and libte to nomynt and assigne by the advise of his Highnes Councell, sixtene poons of the Clergy, wherof fower to be Byshop^e, and sixtene poons of the Tempall, wherof fower to be lerned in the common lawes of this Realme, to passe and examyne the Ecclesiastical Lawes of long tyme here used, and to gather order and comylee suche Lawes Ecclesiastical as shalbe thought by his Majesty his said Councell and them or the more part of them convenient to be used practised and set forth wthin this his Realme and other his Downyns, in all sp^{ea}ll or ecclesiastical Court^e and Conventions; And yf after suche allocacōn any of the poons so to be nomynt, happen to dye, that then his Highnes by the advice of

II.
All Images in Churches shall be destroyed; and such Missals, &c. shall be delivered up to the Mayors, &c. and by them to the Bishops, to be burned or destroyed.

Penalty on not delivering up such Books; 1st Offence, 20s. 2d Offence, 40s. 3d. Imprisonment.

III.
Penalty on Mayors, &c. and on Bishops, &c. neglecting to deliver such Books, &c.

IV.
Offences may be determined by Justices of Amise and Peace.

V.
Priores of H.VIII. may be used, invocations to Saints being blotted out.

VI.
Proviso for Images on Monuments.

For administering Ecclesiastical Lawes under the King's Authority;

The King may appoint 16 of the Clergy and 16 of the Laity to pass and compile Ecclesiastical Laws for Three Years.

¹ The Two following Provisions are annexed to the Original Act in Two separate Schedules.
² From the Original A.D. See Note at beginning of this Year.

his seyd Councell duryng the seyd thre yeres, shall have full power and auctorite from tyme to tyme to asigne assigne other in their place to supply the seyd number of xxxij psones, and that the seyd xxxij psones, so nōt as aforesaid, at all tymes from tyme to tyme duryng the seyd thre yeres, shall have full power and auctorite to assent themselves by his Highnes commaundement for the pffyt collection complayng and orderyng of the seyd Lawes.

II.
Laws so compiled
shall be valid.

AND Be it also enacted by the auctorite aforesaid, That suche Lawes Ecclesiasticall so compiled gathered and ord by the seyd xxxij psones or the more number of them, and sett forth published and declared by the King's Majestie Schismacion, w^{ch} the seyd advyse, under his Highnes great seale, shall by virtue of this present Act be onely taken rep practyced and put in ure for the Kyng's Ecclesiasticall Lawes of this Realme and no other; any lawe statutyng usage prescription to the contrary therof notwithstanding.

III.
None shall incur Penalties for assenting such Laws.

(*) PROVIDED always and it is ordained and enacted by thaauctorite aforesaid, That no manner of persons or pers shall at any tyme hereafter incurre or be in any contempe payne forfeiture or lose, or in daunger of any actyon suite of Premunire by meane or occasion of executing or putting in exerceyse of any Lawes or matter which sh devised by the seyd xxxij or the more pte of theym and sett fourth by Proclamation under the great Seale of Engle or for holding of any Manner of Plece or making of any Proces touching or concerning any suche Lawes or any any Statute Lawe or Custome to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding.

IV.
Ecclesiastical
Judges shall obey Proclamations.

PROVIDED also and be it enacted by thaauctorite aforesaid, That all and every Ecclesiastical Judge and Mite that shall execute any thing by vertue of any suche Lawes so to be sett fourth as is abovesaid, shall from tyn tyme obeye the King's writt and writt of Prohibition Attachement upon Prohibition and Inducavit, and not to pro contrary to the tenor of suche writt or writt, in suche and the same manner fourme and condicō as they have ought to have doen before the making of this Acte, any thing in this Acte to the contrary notwithstanding.

V.
Laws so compiled shall not be repugnant to the Common Law.

PROVIDED always and be it enacted by the auctorite aforesaid, That this Acte or any thing therein conteyned, not extend or be interpreted to gyve any auctorite to the seyd xxxij psones or to the more number of them, or to the Kyng's Highnes, for to compile establish publish or set fourth any Ecclesiastical Lawe repugnant or contrary to comon Lawe or Statute of this Realme; Any thing in this Acte to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XII.

AN ACTS for the ordering of Ecclesiasticall Ministers.

Form of Commission of Ministers, Priests, Bishops, &c. to be
sworn by the King,
Bishop, &c. to be appointed by the King, and not forth
by Proclamation.

FORASMUCHE as Concorde and Unyite to be had within the King's Majesties Domynions, yt is requysite to have one uniforme fashion and manner for making and consecrating of Bishoppes Priestes Deacons or Mynsters of the Church: Be it therefore enacted by the Kinges Highnes with the assent of the Lordes spiritual and the Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled and by thaauctorite of the same, that suche forme and maner making and consecrating of Archebishoppes Bishoppes Priestes Deacons and other Mynsters of the Church, as aize Prelate and sixe other men of this Realme learned in God's lawe, by the Kinges Majestie to be appoynted assigned, or by the most nombre of them, shalbe devised for that purpose, and set fourth under the Great Seale of Englande before the fyrst daye of Aprill next comynge, shall by vertue of this present Acte be lawfully exercised used, and none other; Anye estatute lawe or usage to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

CHAPTER XIII. (*)

AN ACTS for the Reintegracō in bloude of S^r Will^m Sharyngton Knight.

Partes conferred to Sir William Sharyngton, minister of the Treasure by Commission, and Stat.
c. 12. § 1. VI. c. 17.
but pardoned by
Letters Patent
§ Stat. c. 12. VI.

WHERE S^r Will^m Sharyngton Knight, aswell by the course of the Cōmon Lawe of this Realme of Englande by Acte of Parliament, was lately staynted of Highe Treason and other offence, by reason wherof he deprived and disabled in bloude and name, to demaunde aske have and enjoye suche Mannor Landes tenement hereditament as shoulde or might comynge dyscende remsyne or revert to him from any his lyneall or collaterall ancestors or successors, to whome he shoulde or might he heyre in bloude: And Where our Sovereigne Lorde the King that now is, of his habundaunt clemencye piete charite especiall grace and mere motyon, and by thadvise of honorable Councell, by his Grac^{ty} tres patent^{ty} under his great Seale of Englande, bearing date at Westmst the fyfth daye of November, in the thirde yere of his Reigne, hath pardoned remytted and released unto the seyd S^r Will^m Sharyngton by the name of Will^m Sharyngton late of London Knight, otherwise called Will^m Sharyngton of Lon Knight, otherwise called Will^m Sharyngton of Layke in the Countie of Willeshere Knight, or by what other name or surname, or addicō of name or surname he were known or call

* The following Provisions are annexed to the Original Act in two separate Schedules.

* From the Original Act. See Note at the beginning of this Year.