SEC. 24. Of the district court judicial districts, number 1 shall comprise the counties of Adair, Cherokee, Delaware, and Sequoyah; number 2, the counties of Craig, Mayes, Nowata, Ottawa, Rogers, and Washington; number 3, the counties of Muskogee and Wagoner; number 4, the counties of McIntosh and Pittsburg; number 5, the counties of Haskell, Latimer, Le Flore, and Pushmataha; number 6, the counties of Bryan, Choctaw, Marshall, and McCurtain; number 7, the counties of Atoka, Coal, Johnston, Pontotoc, and Seminole; number 8, the counties of Carter and Love; number 9, the counties of Hughes, Creek, Okfuskee, and Okmulgee; number 10, the counties of Lincoln and Pottawatomie; number 11, the counties of Kingfisher and Logan; number 12, the counties of Grant, Kay, and Noble; number 13, the counties of Canadian and Oklahoma, with two judges; number 14, the counties of Cleveland, Garvin, McClain, and Murray; number 15, the counties of Caddo, Grady, Jefferson, and Stephens; number 16, the counties of Comanche, Jackson, and Tillman; number 17, the counties of Blaine, Custer, Kiowa, and Washita; number 18, the counties of Beckham, Dewey, Ellis, Greer, and Roger Mills; number 19, the counties of Beaver, Cimarron, Harper, Texas, Woods, and Woodward; number 20, the counties of Alfalfa, Garfield, and Major; number 21, the counties of Osage, Payne, Pawnee, and Tulsa.

SEC. 25. The terms of the district court shall be held at the county seat of the respective counties.

ARTICLE VIII.

Impeachment and removal from office.

SECTION 1. The governor and other elective State officers, including the justices of the supreme court, shall be liable and subject to impeachment for wilful neglect of duty, corruption in office, habitual drunkenness, incompetency, or any offense involving moral turpitude committed while in office.

SEC. 2. All elective officers, not liable to impeachment, shall be subject to removal from office in such manner and for such causes as may be provided by law.

SEC. 3. When sitting as a court of impeachment, the senate shall be presided over by the chief justice, or if he is absent or disqualified, then one of the associate justices of the supreme court, to be selected by it, except in cases where all the members of said court are absent or disqualified, or in cases of impeachment of any justice of the supreme court, then the senate shall elect one of its own members as a presiding officer for such purpose. The house of representatives shall present all impeachments.

SEC. 4. When the senate is sitting as a court of impeachment, the senators shall be on oath, or affirmation, impartially to try the party impeached, and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the senators present.

SEC. 5. Judgment of impeachment shall not extend beyond removal from office, but this shall not prevent punishment of any such officer on charges growing out of the same matter by the courts of the State.

SEC. 6. The legislature shall pass such laws as are necessary for carrying into effect the provisions of this article.

ARTICLE IX.

Corporations.

DEFINITION.

SECTION 1. As used in this article, the term "corporation" or "company" shall include all associations and joint stock companies having any power or privileges, not possessed by individuals, and exclude all municipal corporations and public institutions owned or controlled by the State; the term "charter" shall mean the charter of incorporation, by or under which any corporation is formed. The term "license" shall mean the authority under which all foreign corporations are permitted to transact business in this State.

RAILROAD AND PUBLIC SERVICE CORPORATIONS.

SEC. 2. Every railroad, oil pipe, car, express, telephone or telegraph corporation or association organized or authorized to do a transportation or transmission business under the laws of this State for such purpose, shall, each respectively, have the right to construct and operate its line between any points in this State, and as such to connect at the State line with like lines; and every such company shall have the right with its road or line, to intersect, connect with, or cross any railroad or such line.

SEC. 3. Every railroad, car, or express company, shall each respectively receive and transport without delay or discrimination each other's cars, loaded or empty, tonnage, and passengers, under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by law or any commission created by this constitution or by act of the legislature, for that purpose.

SEC. 4. All oil pipe companies shall be subject to the reasonable control and regulation of the corporation commission, and shall receive and transport each other's tonnage or oils, or commodities, under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by law, or such commission.

SEC. 5. All telephone and telegraph lines, operated for hire, shall each respectively, receive and transmit each other's messages without delay or discrimination, and make physical connections with each other's lines, under such rules and regulations as shall be prescribed by law, or by any commission created by this constitution, or any act of the legislature for that purpose.

SEC. 6. Railroads heretofore constructed, or which may hereafter be constructed in this State, are hereby declared public highways. Every railroad or other public service corporation organized or doing business in this State, under the laws or authority thereof, shall have and maintain a public office or place in this State, for the transaction of its business, where transfers of stock shall be made, and where shall be kept, for inspection by the stockholders of such corporation, books, in which shall be recorded the amount of capital stock subscribed, the names of the owners of stock, the amounts owned by them, respectively; the amount of stock paid, and by whom; the transfer of said stock, with the date of transfer; the amount of its assets and liabilities, and the names and places of residence of its officers, and such other matters required by law or by order of the corporation commission. The directors of every railroad company, or other public service corporation, shall hold at least one meeting annually in this State, public notice of which shall be given thirty days previously, and the president or superintendent of every railroad company and other public-service corporation organized or doing business in this State under the laws of this State or the authority thereof, shall report annually under oath, and make such other reports as may be required by law or order of the corporation commission, to said commission their acts and doings, which report shall include such matters relating to railroads and other public service corporations as may be prescribed by law. The legislature shall pass all necessary laws enforcing, by suitable penalties, all the provisions in this section.

SEC. 7. The rolling stock and all other movable property belonging to any railroad, transportation, transmission, or other public corporation in this State, shall be considered personal property, and its real and personal property, or any part thereof, shall be liable to
