

The fifth booke of Moses, called in the Hebrew Elle haddebarim, and in the Latine Deuteronomium.

The first Chapter.

32 Moses reproveth the people for their incredulity.

These be the wordes which Moses spake vnto all Israel, on the other side Jordan in the wilderness, in the plaine ouer against the red sea, betwene Pharan, and Chophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

2 There are eleuen dayes iourney from Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, vnto Cades Barnea.

3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtieth yere that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, according vnto all that the Lorde had giuen him in commandement vnto them.

4 * After he had slaine Sichon, the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Heshbon, and Og the king of Basan, which dwelt at Ashtaroth in Cozai.

5 On the other side Jordane in the land of Moab, bega Moses to declare this law, saying,

6 The Lord our God spake vnto vs in Horeb, saying, Ye haue dwelt long enough in this mount:

7 Turne you, and take your iourney, and goe to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto all the places nigh therunto, both vnto the plaine, and hills, and dales, to the South, to the sea side, to the land of Chanaan, and vnto Libanon, vnto the great riuer, the riuer Euphrates.

8 Beholde, I haue set the land before you: Goe in and possesse the lande which the Lorde swaie vnto your fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, to giue vnto them, and to their seede after them.

9 And I spake vnto you in the same time, saying, * I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

10 For the Lord your God hath multiplied you, so that you be this day as the starres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many moe as ye are, & blesse you, as he hath promised you.)

12 * How can I my selfe alone ^d beare your cumberance, your charge, and your strife that is among you?

13 Bring you men of wisdom and of understanding, and expert according to your tribes, and I will make them rulers ouer you.

14 And ye answered me, & saide, That which thou hast spoken, is good for vs to doe.

15 And so out of your tribes I tooke the chiefe men of wisdom, and that were expert, and made them ^{lead} rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, captaines ouer fifties, and captaines ouer tens, and officers among your tribes.

16 And I charged your Iudges that same time, saying, * Heare the cause of your brethren, and iudge righteously betwene euery man and his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

17 * Ye shall haue no respect of any person in iudgement, but you shall heare the small as well as the great: You shall not feare the face of any man, for the iudgement is Gods: And the cause that is too hard for you, refferre it vnto me, and I will heare it.

18 And I commanded you the same season, all the things which yee should doe.

19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went through al that great and terrible wilderness, as ye haue seene by the way of the mountaine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God commanded vs: and we came to Cades Barnea.

20 And I said vnto you, Ye are come vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, which the Lord our God doth giue vnto vs.

21 Behold, the Lord thy God hath set the land before thee: goe by and possesse it, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath saide vnto thee: feare not, neither be discouraged.

22 And ye came vnto me euery one, and saide, We will send men before vs, to search vs out the land, and to bring vs word againe what way we must goe by, and vnto what cities we shal come.

23 * And the saying pleased me well: and I tooke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one.

24 * Which departed, and went by into that mountaine, and came vnto the valley of Eschol, and searched it out.

25 And they brought of the land in their hands, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs word againe, and said, It is a good land which the Lord our God doth giue vs.

26 Notwithstanding, yee would not goe by, but were disobedient vnto the word of the Lord your God.

27 And murmured in your tents, and saide, Because the Lord hateth vs, therefore hath he brought vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs.

28 Whither shal we goe by? Our brethren haue discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater and taller then we, the cities are great, and walled by to heauen, & moreover, wee haue seene the sonnes of the Anakims there.

29 Then I said vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraid of them:

30 The Lord your God which goeth before you,

a In the country of Moab: & this wilderness was betwene the plaine of Moab and the sea.
