

Observe the *moneth of ^athe new come, that thou mayest offer the Pasche into the Lord thy God: for in the moneth when come beginmeth to ripe, the Lord thy God brought thee out of Egypt by night.

^bThou shalt therefore offer the Pasche into the Lord thy God (of sheepe and oxen) in the place which the Lord shall chuse to put his name there.

^cThou shalt eate no leavened bread with it: ^dbut seven dayes shalt thou eate unleavened bread therewith, even the bread of tribulation (for thou camest out of the land of Egypt in hast) that thou mayest remember the day when thou camest out of the land of Egypt, all the dayes of thy life.

^eAnd there shall be no leavened bread scene in all thy coastes seven dayes long, neither shall there remaine any thing of the flesh which thou offeredst the first day at Euen, untill the morning.

^fThou mayst not offer the Pasche with in any of the gates which the Lord thy God giueth thee:

^gBut in the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse to put his name in, there thou shalt offer the Pasche at Euen, about the going downe of the Sunne, in the season that thou camest out of Egypt.

^hAnd thou shalt roste and eat it in the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen, and thou shalt returne ⁱof the morowe, and goe vnto thy tents.

^jSeven dayes thou shalt eate ^kleavened bread, and the seventh day shall be a solemne assembly before the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no worke therein.

^lSeven weekes shalt thou ^mnumber vnto thee, and beginne to number the seven weekes, when thou beginnest to put thy sickle to the corne:

ⁿAnd keepe the feast of weekes vnto the Lord thy God with a free will offering of thine hand, which thou shalt giue vnto the Lord thy God, according as the Lord thy God hath ble-sed thee.

^oAnd thou shalt reioyce before the Lord thy God, thou, and thy sonne, thy daughter, thy seruant, and thy maide, and the Leuite that is with in thy gates, and the stranger, the fatherlesse, and the widowe, that are among you, in the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen to put his name there.

^pAnd remember that thou wast a ^qseruant in Egypt: and thou shalt obserue and doe these ordinances.

^rThou shalt also obserue ^sthe feast of Tabernacles seven dayes, after that thou hast gathered in thy corne and thy wine.

^tAnd thou shalt reioyce in thy feast, thou, and thy sonne, thy daughter, thy seruant, and thy maide, the Leuite, the stranger, and the fatherlesse, and the widowe, that are within thy gates.

^uSeven dayes shalt thou keepe a solemne feast vnto the Lord thy God, in the place which the Lord shall chuse: for the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in all thy ^vworkes, and in all the workes of thine handes, therefore shalt thou be glad.

^wThree times in a yeere shall all the males appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which hee shall chuse: in the feast of unleavened bread, in the feast of weekes, and in the feast of Tabernacles: and they shall not appeare before the Lord empty.

^xEvery man shall giue ^yaccording to the gift of his hand, and according to the blessing of the Lord thy God, which he hath giuen thee.

^zJudges and officers shalt thou make thee, in all thy cities which the Lord thy God giueth thee, throughout thy tribes, and they shall iudge the people with iust iudgement.

^{aa}Thou shalt not thou the lawe, nor knowe any person, neither take any reward: for giftes doe blind the eyes of the wise, and peruert the words of the righteous.

^{ab}That which is iust and right shalt thou follow, that thou mayest liue, and enioy the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

^{ac}Thou shalt plant ^{ad}no groue of any trees neere vnto the altar of the Lord thy God, which thou shalt make thee.

^{ae}Thou shalt set thee by ^{af}no pillar, which the Lord thy God hateth.

The xvij. Chapter.

^{ag}The punishment of the idolater. ^{ah}The election of the king.

Thou shalt offer vnto the Lord thy God ^{ai}no oxen, nor sheepe wherein is a blemish, or any euill fauourednes: for that is an abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

^{aj}If there be found among you within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giueth thee, man or woman that hath wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his covenant:

^{ak}And gone and serued strange gods, and worshipped them, as the Sunne, or Moone, or any of the hostes of heauen, which I haue not commanded:

^{al}And it is told thee, and thou hast heard of it, then shalt thou enquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing of a suretie, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

^{am}Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which haue committed that wicked thing) vnto the gates, and shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

^{an}At the mouth of ^{ao}two or three witnesses, shall hee that is worthy of death, die: and at the mouth of one witness, ^{ap}let no man die.

^{aq}The hands of the witnesses shall be first vpon him, to kill him, and afterward the hands of all the people: and thou shalt put the wicked away from thee.

^{ar}If there rise a matter too harde for thee in iudgement, betweene blood and blood, betweene plea and plea, betweene plague and plague, and the matters come to strife within thy gates, then shalt thou arise, and get thee by vnto the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen.

^{as}And come vnto the Priests the Leuites, and vnto the iudge that shall be in those dayes, and atke: and they shall shewe thee the sentence of iudgement.

^{at}And thou shalt doe according to that which they of that place (which the Lord hath chosen) shewe thee, and thou shalt obserue to doe
