

The first booke of Moses,

called in Hebrew, of the first worde of the booke,

(a) Bereschith, and in Greeke (b) Genesis.

(a) That is, In the beginning.

(b) That is,
generacion
of creation.

The first Chapter.

1. Howe heaven and earth, 3. the lyght, 6. the firmament, 16. the sunne, the moone, the starrs, 21. and fishes in the sea, 24. and al beastes, and foules, were made by the worde of God, 26. and how man also was created.

(a) Although the workes of God, both in the creation, & in his spirituall operation in man, seeme true and imperfect at the first: yet God by the working of his holy spirit, bringeth all things to a perfection at the end. (b) The confused heape of heaven & earth was imperfect, and darke, and yet not utterly dead, but was endued with a power & strength of gods spirit, and so made ready, to continue unto the present state.

IN the begynnyng GOD created the heauen & the earth.

And the earth was without forme, & was voyde: & darkenesse (was) upon the face of the deepe, and the spirit of God mooued upon the face of the waters.

And God sayde, Let there be lyght: and there was lyght.

And God saw the lyght that it was good: and God diuided the lyght from the darkenesse.

And God called the lyght, Day, and the darkenesse, Night: and the evening and the morning were the first day.

And God sayde, Let there be a firmament betwene the waters, & let it make a diuision betwene waters and waters.

And God made the firmament, and let a diuision betwene the waters which (were) vnder the firmament, and the waters that (were) aboue the firmament: and it was so.

And God called the firmament, the Heauen: and the evening and the morning were the seconde day.

And God sayd, Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered together into one place, and let the drye land appeare: and it was so.

And God called the drye land the Earth, and the gathering together of the waters called he the Seas: and God saw that it was good.

(a) As the firmament, or firmament, is a diuision betwene the waters, which are in the clouds, which are vnder the firmament, and the waters that are aboue the firmament, which are in the firmament.

(b) As the firmament, or firmament, is a diuision betwene the waters, which are in the clouds, which are vnder the firmament, and the waters that are aboue the firmament, which are in the firmament.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede, and fruitfull trees, yeeleing fruite after his kynde, whiche hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede after his kynde, and tree yeeleing fruite, which had seede in it selfe, after his kynde.

13 And God sawe that it was good. And the euening and the morning were the thyrde day.

14 And God sayde, Let there be lychtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may diuide the day and the night, and let them be for signes, and seasons, and for dayes, and yeres.

15 And let them be for lychtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may geue lycht vpon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lychtes: a greater lycht to rule the day, and a lesse lycht to rule the night, & (he made) starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth.

18 And to rule the day and the nyght, and to make difference betweene the lycht and the darknesse: and God sawe that was good.

19 And the euening and the morning were the fourth day.

20 And God sayde, Let the waters bring forth ^(c) moouing creature that hath lyfe, and foule that may flee vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen.

21 And God created great whales, and every luyng and mooung creature, whiche the waters brought forth after theyr kynde, and every feathered foule after theyr kynde: and God sawe that it was good.

22 And God ^(b) blessed them, sayeing, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and fyll the waters of the sea, and let foule multiplye in the earth.

23 And the euening and morning were the fyfth day.

24 And God sayde, Let the earth bring forth luyng creature after his kynd, catel, worne, and beastes of the earth after his kynde: and it was so.

25 God made the beast of the earth after his kynde, and catel after his kynde, and every thyng that creepeth vpon the earth after his kynd: and God sawe that it was good.

26 God sayde, Let vs make man in our image, after our lykenesse, & let them haue rule of the fyfth of the sea, and of the foule of the ayre, and of catel, & of al the earth, and of every creeping thyng that creepeth vpon the earth.

27 So God created man in his ^(d) owne image, in the image of God created he hym, male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God sayde vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and replenishe the earth, and subdue it, and haue dominion of the fyfth of the sea, and foule of the ayre, and of every liuing thyng that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God sayde, Beholde, I haue geuen you euery hearbe bearyng seede, which is in the vypper face of al the earth, and euery tree, in the whiche is the fruite of a tree, bearyng seede, (that) they may be meate vnto you:

30 To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery byrde of the ayre, and to euery such thyng that creapeth vpon the earth, whiche doth lye, I haue geuen euery greene hearbe for meate: and it was so.

31 And God sawe euery thyng that he had made: & beholde, it was exceeding good. And the euening and the morning were the sixth day.

19 And so out of the grounde the Lord God had shaped euery beast of the fielde, and euery soule of the ayre, and brought it vnto man, that he might see howe he would cal it. For lyke wyse as man hym selfe named euery lyving thyng, euen so was the name thereof.

23 And man sayd, This is nowe bone of my bones, and fleshe of my fleshe, she shall be called ^p woman, because she was taken out of man.
24 For this cause shall man leaue his father and his mother, and shall be ioyned with his wife: and they shall become one fleshe.
