11 And God sayd, Let the earth bring forth budde and greene hearbe apt to seede, and fruitefull trees, yeldyng fruite after his kynde, whiche hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth : and it was so.

12 And the earth brought forth greene hearbe apt to seede after his kynde, and tree yeldyng fruite, which had seede in it selfe after his kynde.

14 And God sayd, * Let there be lightes in the firmament of heauen, that they may di- uide the day and the nyght, and let them be * for signes and seasons, and for daies, and yeres.

15 And let them be for lightes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may geue lyght vpon the earth : and it was so.

16 And God made two great lightes : a great lyght to rule the day, and a lesse lyght to rule the nyght, and he made starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shyne vpon the earth,

18 And to rule the day and nyght, and to make difference betwene the lyght and the darkenesse : and God sawe that it was good.

21 And God created great whales, & every lyuyng and moonyng creature, whiche the waters brought forth after their kynde, & every feathered foule after their kynde : and God sawe that it was good.

6. Day.

24 And God sayde, Let the earth bring forth lyuyng creature after his kynde, cat- tel, wooyne, and beastes of the earth after his kynde : and it was so.

25 God made the beast of the earth after his kynde, and cattrell after his kynde, and eu- ry thyng that creepeth vpon the earth after his kynde: and God sawe that it was good.

26 God sayde, * Let vs make man in our image, after our lykenesse, & let them haue rule of the fysh of the sea, and of the foule of the ayre, and of cattell, & of al the earth, and of euery creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth.

27 So God created man in his owne image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God sayde vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiplie, and replenysh the earth, & subdue it, and haue dominion of the fysh of the sea, and foule of the ayre, and of euery lyuyng thyng that mooueth vpon the earth.

29 And God sayde, Beholde, I haue geuen you euery hearbe bearyng seede, whiche is in the vpper face of all the earth, and euery tree, in the whiche is the fruite of a tree, bearyng seede, that they may be meate vnto you :

30 To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery birde of the ayre, and to euery such thing that creepeth vpon the earth, whiche doeth " lyue, I haue geuen euery greene hearbe for meate : and it was so.

31 And God sawe euery thyng that he had made : and behold, it was exceeding good. And the Euenyng and the Mornyng were the sixth day.

1 Thus the heauens and the earth were finished, and al the host of them.

2 And in the seventh day God ended his woork which he had made. And the seventh day he * rested from al his woork whiche he had made.

3 And God blessed the seventh day, & sanc- tified it : because that in it he had rested from al his woork, whiche God ordeyned to make.

4 These are the generations of the hea- uens, and of the earth, when they were cre- ated, in the day when the Lorde God made the earth and the heauens, the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and man was a living soule.

8 And the Lord God planted a garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whom he had shapen.

9 Whereof, out of the ground he made the Lord God to growe every tree that was fayre to sight, and pleasant to cate: The tree of life in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and euill.

10 And out of Eden there went forth a ryuer to water the garden, and from thence it was diuided, and became into foure heades.

11 The name of the first is Pison, the same is it that compasseth the whole land of Chaulah, where there is golde:

12 And the golde of the lande is very good. There is also Beellum, and the Onic stone.

13 The name of the seconde ryuer is Gihon: the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of Ethiopia.

14 The name of the thirde ryuer is Hidkel, and it goeth toward the East side of Assyria: and the fourth ryuer is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God tooke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Eating, thou shalt cate of every tree of the garden:

17 But as touching the tree of the knowledge of good and euill, thou shalt not cate of it: For in what day so euer thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye: the death.

18 And the Lord God sayd, It is not good that the man should be alone, I will make hym an helpe lyke vnto hym.

19 And so out of the ground the Lord God had shapen every beast of the feelde, & every foule of the ayre, and brought them vnto man, that he might see howe he would cal them: For lyke wyse as man named every lyving thyng, so was the name thereof.

20 And the man gaue names to all cattel, and foule of the ayre, and to every beast of the feelde: but for man founde he not an helpe lyke vnto hym.

21 The Lord God caused a deepe sleepe to fall vpon Adam, and he sleape, and he tooke one of his ribbes, and closed by the place with fleshe in steede thereof.

22 And the rib which the Lord God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her vnto the man.

23 And man sayde, This is now bone of my bones, and fleshe of my fleshe, she shall be called woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 For this cause shall man leaue his father and his mother, and shall be joined to his wyfe: and they shall become one fleshe.

25 And they were both naked the man and his wyfe: and were not ashamed.
