

...de in rears. For speculatio (saith he) other hye connyng and knowledge, if it be not, sayd with the byrdell of feare to offende Godde is dangerous and enough to tumble a man jebellinge downe the hyll. Therefore, sayeth he, the feare of God must be the fyrst begynnynge and as it were an abce or an introductis to all them that shall enter to the very trew and most frutefull knowledge of holpe scriptures. Where as is the feare of God, there is, sayeth he, the keepinge of the commaundementes, and where as is the keepinge of the commaundementes, there is the clensynge of the fleshe, which fleshe is a cloude before the soules eye, and suffereth it not puerlye to see the beame of heuently light. Where as is the clensynge of the fleshe, there is the illumination of the holy ghoost, thende of all oure desyres, and the very lyght wherby the verytie of scriptures is seen and perceyued. This is the mynde and almost the wordes of Gregorie Nazianzene doctour of the greke church of whom saynt Jerome sayth, that vnto hys tyme, the laten church had no wyterable to be compared, and to make an euen matche with him. Therefore to conclude this latter parte, euery man that cometh to the readyng of this holpe booke ought to bynne with hym fyrst and forreste thys feare of almyghty godde, and then nexte a fyne and stable purpose to reforme hys awne selfe accordynge ther vnto, and so to contynue procede, and prosper frome tyme to tyme, thewynge hym selfe to be a sober and frutefull herer and lerner, which if he doo, he shall proue at the length well able to teache, though not with hys mouth, yet with hys lypynge and good example, which is fuer the most lyuely, and moste effectouse forme and maner of teachynge. He that other wyse intermedleth with this booke, let hym be assured, that ons he shall make accompte therfore, when he shall haue sayde to hym as it is wyrtten in the Prophete Dauid, Peccatori dicit deus ace. Vnto the vngodly sayde God, why doest thou preache my lawes, and takest my testament in thy mouth? Where as thou hatest to be reformed, and hast caste my wordes behynde the. When thou sawest a thefe, thou consentyddest vnto hym and hast bene partetaker with aduoucerers. Thou hast lett thy mouth speake wyckednes, and with thy tonge thou hast sett forth discepte. Thou satest and spakest agaynst thy brother and hast sclaundered the awne mothers sonne. These thynges hast thou done, & I helde my tonge and I thoughtest (wyckedly) that I am euen such a one as thy selfe. But I will reprove the, and sett before the, the thynges that thou hast done. Consyder this, ye that forget God lest I plucke you a waye, and ther be none to deliuer you. Who so offereth me thakes and prayse he honoureth me, and to hym that ordereth hys conuersation ryght: wyll I shewe the saluation of godde.

God saue the kynge.

Genesis.

The fyrst Chapter.

Howe heauen and earth, the lyght, the firmament, the sunne, the moone, the starres, and all beastes, foules, and fishes in the see were made by the worde of God. And howe man also was created.

19. Gal. ch. d.
1. Eccl. x. b.
1. Eccle. x. b. iij. a.
1. 2. Cor. vi. c.
1. 2. Cor. vi. c. i. a.

In the begynnyng * God created heauen and earthe.
The earth was voyde and emptye: and darcknes was vpon the face of the depe: and the sprete of God moued vpon the face of the waters. And God sayde: let there be made lyght, and there was light made. And God sawe the light that it was good. And God made a diuision betwene the light and darknesse. And God called the light, daye: and the darknesse called he, nyght. And the euenyng and the mornynge was made one daye.
And God sayde: let there be a firmamēt betwene the waters: and let it make a diui-sion betwene waters and waters. And God made the firmament, and set a diuision be-twene the waters which were vnder the fir-mament, and the waters that were aboue the firmament. And it was so. And God called the firmament, heauen. The euenynge also and the mornynge was made the secōd daye.

1. 2. Cor. vi. c.
1. 2. Cor. vi. c. i. a.

And God sayde: * let the waters vnder heauen be gathered together into one place, that the drye lande maye be sene. And so it came to passe. And God called the drye lāde Earth: and the gatherynge together of waters called he the sees. And God sawe that it was good.

1. 2. Cor. vi. c.
1. 2. Cor. vi. c. i. a.

And God sayde: let the earth bring forth grene herbe, which maye engendre seed: and frutefull tre, yeldyng frute after hys kynde, whose seed maye be in it self vpon the earth.
And it came to passe. And the earth brought forth grene herbe, makynge seede after hys kynde: and tree yeldynge frute, whose seed was in it selfe after hys kynde. And God sawe that it was good. The euenynge also and the mornynge was made the thyrde daye. And God sayde: * let there be made lyghtes in the firmament of heauen: and let them make a difference betwene the daye and the nyght, and let them be vnto signes, and vnto appoynted seasons, and vnto dayes, and vnto yeaers. And let them be vnto lyghtes in the firmament of heauen, that they maye geue lyght vpon the earthe.
And so it came to passe.

1. 2. Cor. vi. c.
1. 2. Cor. vi. c. i. a.

And God made * two greate lyghtes: a greater lyght to rule the daye, & a lesse lyght to rule the night. And he made * starres also:
And God set them in the firmament of heauen, that they myght geue lyght vpon the earth, and that they might rule the daye and the night: and to make a difference betwene the lyght and the darknes. And God sawe that it was good. The euenynge also and the mornynge was made the fourth daye.

And God sayde: * let the waters brynge forth mounge creature that hath lyfe, and foule that maye flye vpon the earth in the face of the firmament of heauen. And God created great whalles and euery lyuing, and mounge creature, which y waters brought forth after their kynde: and euery fethered foule after their kynde. And God sawe that it was good. And God * blessed them, sayinge: Growe & increace and fyll the waters of the see: and let fethred foules be multiplied in the earth. The euenynge also and the mornynge was made the fyfth daye.

And God sayde: let the earth bring forth lyuing creature after his kynde: catell, wo-me and beast of the erth after his kynde: and so it came to passe. And God made the beast of the earth after his kynde, and catell after their kynde: and euery thyng that crepeth vpon the earth after his kynde. And God sawe that it was good.

And God sayde: let vs make man * in oure ymage after oure lycknes, and let them haue rule of the fyth of the see: and foule of the ayre and catell, and all the earth, and of euery crepyng thyng that crepeth vpon the erth. And so God created man in his awne ymage: in the * ymage of God created he hym, * male and female created he them.

And God blessed them, and God sayd vnto them: Growe and increace and replenysh the erth, and subdue it: and haue * dominion of the fish of the see, and foule of the aire: and of euery lyuing thyng that moueth vpon the earth. And God sayde: Beholde, I haue geuen you euery herbe sowynge seed, which is in the vpper face of all the earth: and euery tre in the which is the frute of tree, and that soweth seed, that they maye be meate vnto you. To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery byrde of the ayre, and to euery luche thyng as crepeth vpon the earth (wherein is a lyuing soule) I haue geue all greyness of herbe to be meate. And it came so to passe.
And God sawe euery thyng y he had made, * and beholde, it was excedding good. The euenynge also and the mornynge was made the sixth daye.

The second Chapter.

The halotynge of the Sabbath daye. The four floues of Paradyse. The setting in of man in Paradise. The tre of knowledge is forbidden him: how Adam named all creatures. The creation of Eua.
The institution of marriage.

He heauens also and the erth were fynished, and all the host of them. And in the seuenth daye God ended his worke which he had made. * In the seuenth daye also, he rested from all hys worke which he had made. * And God blessed the seuenth daye, and sanctified it, because in it he had rested from all his worke, which God ordeyned to make.

These are the generacions of the heauens and of the earth when they were created, in the daye, when the Lorde God made the earth and the heauens and euery plant of the felde, before it was in the earth: and euery herbe of the felde, before it grewe. For the Lorde God had not caused it to raygne vpon the earth, neither was there a man to tyll the grounde.
And there went vp a myste fro of the earth, and watred the whole face of the grounde.

The Lorde God also * shope man, euen dust from of the grounde, and bryethed into his nassrels the bryeth of lyfe: and Ada was made a lyuing soule. And the Lorde God planted a garden eastwarde from Eden, and there he put man who he had made. Woreouer, out of the grounde made the Lorde God to growe, euery tre that was pleasaut to the sight, and comodious for meate. The tre of lyfe also and the tre of knowledge of good and of euill was in the myddes of the garden. And out of Eden, there went forth a riuer to water the garden. And from thence it was deuyded, and became into foure bea-des. The name of one is * Pison. The same is it that compasseth the whole lande of Hauilah, where there is golde. And the golde of that lande is good. There is also Sbellun, and the onix stone. The name of the second ryuer is, Syhon: the same is it that compasseth the whole lande of Ethiopia. The name of the third ryuer is Hidkel, & it goth towards the east syde of Assiria. And the fourth ryuer is Euphrates.

The Lorde God also toke Adam, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he myght dresse and kepe it. And the Lorde God commaunded Ada, saying: Eating, thou shalt eate of euery tre of the garden. But as touchynge the tre of knowledge of good and euell, thou shalt not eate of it. For in what daye soeuer thou eatest therof, thou shalt dye the death.

And agayne, the Lorde God sayd: * It is not good that Adam shulde be alone. * I will make him an helpe, which maye be present to him. And so out of the grounde shope the Lorde God euery beast of the felde, and euery foule of the ayre, and brought it vnto man, that he myght se howe he wolde call it.
For likewise as man hym selfe named euery liuyng thyng, euen so was the name therof.
When him selfe therfore named the names vnto all catell, and foule of the ayre, and to euery beast of the felde. And for man founde he not an helpe that myght be present with him. The Lorde God also caused a slomber to fall vpon Adam, and he slept. And he toke one of hys ribbes, & closed vp the flesh in stead therof. And the ribbe which the Lorde God had taken from man, * made he a woman, * and brought her vnto man. And man sayde:

This is nowe bone of my bones, and fleshe of my fleshe. She shalbe called woman, because she was take out of man. * For this cause shall a man leaue hys father and hys mother, & shalbe ioyned with hys wyfe, and they shall become one flesh: and they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

The.iiij. Chapter.

The serpent deceaue the woman. The serpent, the woman, and the man are cursed, and dryuen out of Paradys. Christ our sauour is promysed.

But the serpent was sotyller then euery beast of the felde, which the Lorde God made. And he sayde vnto the woman: yee, hath the Lorde God sayde: ye shall not eat of euery tre of the garden? And the woman sayde vnto the serpent: we eate of the frute of the tre of the garden: but as for the frute of the tre which is in the myddes of the garden, God hath sayde: ye shall not eate of it, neither shal ye touche it, lest happily ye dye. And the serpent sayde vnto the woman: ye shall not dye the death: but God doth knowe, that the same daye that ye eat therof, your eyes shalbe opened, & ye shalbe euē as goddes, knowing good and euill. And so the woman (seyn-g that the same tre was good to eate, and lusty to the eyes, & that the same tre was pleasaunt to get wisdom) toke of the frute thereof, and dyd eate: and gaue vnto her husband beynge with her, which dyd eate also. And the eyes of them both were opened: and they knewe that they were naked, & they sowed fygge leaues together, and made the selues aperns. And they heard the voyce of the Lorde God walkynge in the garden in the coole of the daye. And Adam & his wyfe hid the selues fro the presence of the Lorde God among the trees of the garden. And the Lorde God called Adam, and sayd vnto hym: where art thou?

thou which sayde: I hearde thy voyce in the garden, & was afrayed, because I was naked, & hyd my selfe. And he sayde: Who tolde the, that thou wast naked? hast thou not eaten of the sametre, concernynge the which I commaunded the, that thou shuldest not eate of it? And Adam sayd: The woman, whom thou gauest to be wyth me, she gaue me of the tree, and I dyd eate.

And the Lorde God sayde vnto the woman: Why hast thou done this? And the woman sayde: yonder serpent begyled me, and I dyd eate. And the Lorde God sayde vnto the serpent: because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all catell, and aboue euery beast of the felde. Upon thy belly shalt thou go, & dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy lyfe. I will also put enmitye betwene the & the woman, betwene thy seede and hys seede: the same shall treade downe thy head, and thou shalt treade vpon hys heele.

But vnto the woman he sayde: In multiplieng wyll I multiplie thy sorowe & thy conceyvinge: In sorowe shalt thou brynge forth chyldren, & thy lust shall pertayne to thy husbunde, & he shall haue the rule of the.
Vnto Adam he sayde: Because thou hast herkened vnto the voyce of thy wyfe, & hast eaten of the tree (concernynge the which I comaunded the, sayinge: Thou shalt not eate of it) cursed is the ground for thy sake. In sorow shalt thou eate of it all the dayes of thy lyfe. Thorne also & thysle shall it cause to growe vnto the, & thou shalt eate the herbe of the felde. In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eate bread, tyll thou be turned agayne into the grounde, for out of it was thou taken, in as much as thou art dust, & into dust shalt thou be turned agayne.

And Ada called his wyues name * Heua, because she was the mother of all lyuinge. Vnto the same Adam also & to hys wyfe dyd the Lorde God make letheren garmentes, & clothed them. And the Lorde God sayde: Beholde, yonder man hath bene euen as one of vs, that he myght knowe good and euell. And nowe lest happily he put forth hys hāde, and take also of the tree of lyfe, and ea-te, & lyue for euer. And the Lorde God sent them furth from the garden of Eden, to bryese the grounde that he was taken out of. And so he droue out man, & at the east syde of the garden of Eden, he set Cherubins, & the gly-sterynge flame of a shakynge swerde, to ke-pe the waye of the tre of lyfe.

The.iiij. Chapter.

Cain doth not onely kyll his righte brother Abell, but also dyspayeth: and is cursed. The generacion of Enoch: Methuselah: Tubal: Lamech: Seth and Enos.

Adā knewe heua his wife: who coceaynge, bare Cain, sayinge: I haue gotten a man of the Lorde. And the proceaynge furth, brought forth hys brother habel, and habel was a keeper of shepe.
But Cain was a tyller of the grounde. And in pcesse of dayes it came to passe, that Cain brought of the frute of the grounde an obla-cyon vnto the Lorde. Habel also brought of the fyrstlynge of hys shepe, and of the fat therof. And the Lorde had respect vnto * habel, & to hys oblacyon. But vnto Cain and to hys offrynge he had no respect. For the whych cause Cain was excedynge wro-the, and hys countenance abated. And the Lorde sayde vnto Cain: Why art thou wro-the, & why is thy countenance abated? * yf thou do well, shalt there not be a promociō.
And yf thou dost not well, lyeth not thy syn ne in the doores? Vnto the also pertayneth the lust therof, and thou shalt haue dominio ouer it. And Cain spake vnto habel hys brother: (let vs go furth.)

And it fortunēd * when they were in the felde, Cain rose vp agaynst habel hys brother, and slue him. And the Lorde sayde vnto Cain: Where is habel thy brother? Whych sayd: I wote not: Am I my brothers keeper?
And he sayde: What hast thou done? The voyce of thy brothers bloude crieth vnto me out of the grounde. And nowe art thou curs-sed from of the erth, whych hath opened hys mouth, to receaue thy brothers bloude from thy hande. If thou tyll the grounde, he shall not proceade to yelde vnto the hys strength.
Fugitpue, and vagabounde shalt thou be in the erth. And Cain sayde vnto the Lorde: Wyne * iniquite is more, then yf it maye be forguen. Beholde, thou hast cast me out this daye from the vpper face of the erth, and fro thy face shall I be hyd: Fugitpue also and a vagabounde shall I be in the erth. And it shall come to passe: euery one that fyndeth me, shall slaye me. And the Lorde sayde vnto him: * (it shall not be so) yee, but whosoever slayeth Cain, it shalbe auenged seven folde.

And the Lorde set a marke vpon Cain, & lest any mā fyndynge him, shulde kyll hym.
And Cain wente out fro the presence of the Lorde, & dwelt in the lode of Moab eastward fro Eden. Cain also knewe his wife, whych coceaued & bare Enoch: & byldynge a cyte, he called the name of the same cyte after the name of hys sonne Enoch. Vnto the same Enoch was borne Irad. Irad begat Mea ij buldel, hufael, & Methufael begat Methufael. Methufael begat Lamech. And Lamech took vnto hym two wyues: The name of the one was Ada, & the name of the other was Zilla. And Ada begat Jabal, whych was the father of such as dwell in tentes, & of such as haue catell. His brothers name was Tubal, whych was the father of such as handle harpe & organe. And Zilla also begat Tubal Cain, whych wrought conyngly euery craft of brasse & of yron. The sister of Tubal Cain, was Naama.

And Lamech sayde vnto his wyues Ada and Zilla: Heare my voyce ye wyues of Lamech, hearken vnto my speche: I haue not slayne a man to the woundynge of my selfe, & a yonge man to myne owne punishment. If Cain shalbe auenged seuffolde, truple Lamech seuffe tymes and seuen tymes.

Adam knewe his wife agayne, & she bare a sonne, and called his name Seth: For God (sayde she) hath appoynted me another seide in steade of Abel, whiche Cain slew. And vnto the same Seth also there was borne a sonne, & he called his name Enos. Then began they to make innocacyon in the name of the Lorde.

The v. Chapter.

The genealogie of Adam and of the other fathers vnto Noe.

In this is the boke of the generacions of Ada. In the daye that God created mā, in the lyknesse of God made he hym. Male and female created he them, & blessed them, and called their name Adam in the daye of their creacyon.

And Adam lyued an hundred & thyrtye yeres, & begat (a sonne) in hys owne lyknesse after his ymage, & called his name Seth. All the dayes of Adam (after he had begotten Seth) were egypt hundred yeres, & he begat sonnes and daughters. And all the dayes that Adam lyued, were nyne hundred and thyrtye yeres, and he dyed.

Seth lyued an hundred & fyue yeres, and begat Enos. And Seth lyued (after he begat Enos) egypt hundred yeres & seue yeres, & begat sonnes & daughters. And all the dayes of Seth were, nyne hundred & twelue yeres. And he dyed.

Enos lyued nyntye yeres & begat Kenan. And Enos lyued (after he begat Kenan) eight hundred & fyfene yeres, & begat sonnes & daughters. And all the dayes of Enos were nyne hundred & fyue yeres. And he dyed.

Kenan lyued seuentye yeres, & begat Methael. And Kenan lyued (after he begat Methael) egypt hundred yeres and fortye yeres, and begat sonnes & daughters. And all the dayes of Kenan were nyne hundred yeres and ten yeres, and he dyed.

Methael lyued fyrtye yeres & fyue yeres, res, & begat Jared. And agayne, Methael lyued (after he begat Jared) egypt hundred & thyrtye yeres, & begat sonnes & daughters. And all the dayes of Methael were egypt hundred nyntye & fyue yeres. And he dyed.

Jared lyued an hundred & fyrtye and two yeres, & begat Henoch. And Jared lyued (after he begat Henoch) egypt hundred yeres, & begat sonnes and daughters. And all the dayes of Jared were nyne hundred and fyrtye and two yeres. And he dyed.

Henoch lyued fyrtye & fyue yeres, & begat Methuselah. And Henoch walked with God after he begat Methuselah, thre hundred yeres, & begat sonnes & daughters. And all the dayes of Henoch were thre hundred & fyrtye & fyue yeres. And Henoch walked with God, & he (was) no moze sene, for God toke hym awaye.

Methuselah also lyued an hundred yeres, & egypt & seue yeres, & begat Lamech. And agayne Methuselah lyued (after he begat Lamech,) seuen hundred yeres, and egypt & two yeres, and begat sonnes and daughters. And all the dayes of Methuselah were nyne hundred yeres and fyrtye & nyne yeres. And he dyed.

Lamech lyued an hundred yeres & egypt & two yeres, & begat a sonne, & called his name Noah, sayenge: This same shall comfort vs as concernynge oure woike & sorowe of oure hādes, fro of the erth, which God cursed. And Lamech lyued (after he begat Noah) fyue hundred yeres & nyntye & fyue yeres, & begat sonnes & daughters. And all the dayes of Lamech were seue hundred yeres, and seuentye and seuen yeres, and he dyed.

Noah was fyue hundred yere olde. And Noah begat Sem, Ham, and Japheth.

The vi. Chapter.

The cause of the floude. God warneth Noe of the comynge of the floude. The preparynge of the Arke.

And it came to passe, that man began to be multiplied in the vpper face of the erth, and there were daughters borne vnto the. The sonnes of God also sawe the daughters of mā that they were fayre, and they toke them wyues from amonge all y they had chosen. And the Lorde sayde: My sprete shall not allwaye, sturue in mā, because he is flesch, and hys dayes shalbe an hundred & twentye yeres. But there were gyantes in the erth in those dayes: yee and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and they had gedred vnto them, the same became myghty me of the worlde, and men of renoune.

But God sawe that the malice of man was greute in the erth, and all the ymaginacyō of the thoughtes of hys hert was only euell euery daye. And it repented the Lorde, that he had made mā in the erth, & he was was touched with sorow in his harte. And the Lorde sayde: I wyll (from the vpper face of the erth) destroye man, whom I haue created: both man, catell, woyme, & foule of the ayre, for it repenteth me y I haue made them.

But Noah founde grace in the eyes of the Lorde: These are y generacions of Noah. Noah was iust & perfect in his generacions, and walked with God. Noah begat thre sonnes: Sem, Ham, & Japheth. The earth also was corrupte before God, & the same earth was fylled with crueltie. And God looked vpon the erth, and beholde it was corrupt: For all fleshe had corrupt hys waye vpon earth.

And God sayde vnto Noah: The ende of all fleshe is come before me, for the earth is fylled with crueltie from the face of them. And beholde, I wyll destroye them with the erth, & make the an Arke of fyne trees. Habitacions shalt thou make in the Arke, and shalt ptych it within & without with ptych.

And of this fashyon shalt thou make it. The lengthe of the Arke shalbe thre hundred cubytes: The bredth of it, fyrtye cubytes, & the heygth of it thyrtye cubytes. A wyndowe shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou synthe it aboue, but the doore of the Arke shalt thou set in the syde therof. With thre lottes one aboue an other shalt thou make it.

And beholde, I, euen I, do bring a floude of waters vpon the earth, that I maye destroye all fleshe wherein is y bryth of lyfe vnder heauen: And euery thyng that is in the earth, shall dye. With the also wyll I make my couenauent, & thou shalt come into the Arke: thou & thy sonnes, thy wife & thy sonnes wyues with the. And euery lyuing thinge, and of all fleshe, a payre of euery one shalt thou bringe into the Arke, to kepe them alpyue with the. They shalbe male & female. Of feathered foules also after they kynde, & of catell after they kynde, of euery woyme of the earth after hys kynde: two of euery one shalt thou come vnto y, that thou mayst kepe them alpyue.

And take thou with the of all meate that is eaten, and thou shalt laye it vp with y, that it maye be meate for the & them. Noah therefore dyd accordyng vnto all that God commaunded hym: euen so dyd he.

The vii. Chapter.

The entrance of Noe, and of them that were with hym, into the Arke. The rising of the floude: wherewith couer all thynges dyd perlyshe.

And the Lorde sayd vnto Noah: Come thou and all thy house into y Arke, for the haue I sene y ryghtuous before me in thys generacyon. Of euery cleane beaste thou shalt take with the seuen and seuen: The male and hys female: But of vncleane catell, two, the male and hys female. Of foules also of the ayre, seuen and seuen, y male & the female, to kepe seide alpyue vpon the face of all the whole erth: For yet after seuen dayes I wyll rayne vnto the erth fortye dayes & fortye nyghtes. All substance that I haue made, wyll I destroye from of the vpper face of the earth.

Noah therefore dyd accordyng vnto all that God comaunded hym. And Noah was fyue hundred yeres, & the floude of waters was vpon y earth. And Noah came (and his sonnes, & his wyfe, & his sonnes wyues with hym) vnto the Arke, because of the waters of the floude. Of cleane catell, & of vncleane catell, & of spenge foules, and of euery such as crepeth vpon y erth, there came two and two vnto Noah into the Arke, the male and the female, as God had comaunded Noah. It fortunyd also after seuen dayes, and the waters of the floude were vpon the earth.

In the fyue hundred yere of Noes lyfe in the seconde Moneth, the seuenth daye of the moneth. In the same daye were all the fountaynes of the greete dype broken vp, and the wyndowes of heauen were opened. And the rayne was vpon the earth fortye dayes and fortye nyghtes. In the selfe same daye entred Noah, Sem, Ham, & Japheth, the sonnes of Noah, & Noahs wyfe, and the thre wyues of his sonnes with them into the Arke: They, & euery beast after hys kynde, and all catell after they kynde, yee & euery woyme that crepeth vpon y earth after hys kynde, and euery byrde after hys kynde, and euery flyng & feathered foule.

And they came vnto Noah into the Arke two and two, of all fleshe wherein is the bryth of lyfe. And they entrynge in, came male and female of all fleshe, as God had comaunded hym. And God shut hym in rounde aboute. And the floude came fortye dayes vpon the earth, & the waters were increased, and bare vp y Arke, whiche was lyfte vp aboue the erth. The waters also pzeuapled, & were increased exceedyngly vpon the earth, and the Arke went on the vpper face of the waters. And the waters pzeuapled exceedyngly vpon y earth, & all the hyspylles that are vnder the whole heauen, were couered. Fiftene cubytes vpwarde dyd the waters pzeuaple, so that the mountaynes were couered.

And all fleshe dyed that moued vpon the earth, in foule, in catell, in beast, and in euery woyme that crepeth vpon the earth: yee and euery man also. What soeuer was (in whole noftrils the bryth of lyfe dyd brythe, all these in the dype lande dyed.) And euery thyng that was destroyed, that remayned, & that was in the vpper parte of the grounde (both man and catell, and woyme, and foule of the ayre) they were euen destroyed from of y earth. And Noah onely remayned alpyue, and they that were with hym in the Arke. But
