with that point this court, speaking by Mr. Justice Gray, said (p. 207): "But that statute, requiring the corporation, as a condition precedent to obtaining a permit to do business within the State, to surrender a right and privilege secured to it by the Constitution and laws of the United States, was unconstitutional and void, and could give no validity or effect to any agreement or action of the corporation in obedience to its provisions"—citing Insurance Co. v. Morse, 20 Wall. 445; Barron v. Burnside, 121 U. S. 186; Texas Land Co. v. Worsham, 76 Texas, 556. See also to the same effect Martin v. Baltimore & Ohio R. R. Co., 151 U. S. 673, 684; St. Clair v. Cox, 106 U. S. 350, 356; Barrow Steamship Co. v. Kane, 170 U. S. 100, 110, 111. In the above case of Barron v. Burnside (which was cited with approval in the Denton case), this court, speaking by Mr. Justice Blatchford, unanimously held (p. 200): "As the Iowa statute makes the right to a permit dependent upon the surrender by the foreign corporation of a privilege secured to it by the Constitution and laws of the United States, the statute requiring the permit must be held to be void. . . . In all the cases in which the court has considered the subject of the granting by a state to a foreign corporation of its consent to the transaction of business in the state, it has uniformly asserted that no conditions can be imposed by the state which are repugnant to the Constitution and laws of the United States." So in Barrow Steamship Co. v. Kane, 170 U. S., above cited, Mr. Justice Gray, delivering the unanimous judgment of the court, said (p. 111): "Statutes requiring foreign corporations, as a condition of being permitted to do business within the State, to stipulate not to remove into the courts of the United States suits brought against them in the courts of the State, have been adjudged to be unconstitutional and void." If a domestic corporation engaged in the business of soliciting orders for goods manufactured, sold and delivered in a State, should, in addition, solicit orders for goods manufactured in and to be brought from another State for delivery, could the former State make it a condition of the right to engage in local
