United Wireless Telegraph Company, requiring its appearance before the grand jury and the production by it of the letter press copy books of the company "containing copies of letters and telegrams signed or purporting to be signed by the President of said company during the month of May and June, 1909; in regard to an alleged violation of the statutes of the United States by C. C. Wilson."

Service was made upon the company by service upon Wilson, as president, and upon its secretary and two directors. On the return day Wilson appeared before the grand jury, and in response to questions, when not under oath, stated that he answered the call of the United Wireless Telegraph Company and declined to answer further questions until he was sworn; and having been sworn, and being asked whether or not the company produced the letter press copy books called for, he filed a written statement in which, after describing the subpœna, he said:

"III. Said letter press copy books for the months of May and June, 1909, in said subpœna mentioned during said months of May and June, 1909, were kept regularly in my office as President of said corporation, and were regularly used by me and for the most part, if not entirely, by me only, and contained copies of my personal and other correspondence, as well as copies of the correspondence relating to the business and affairs of said corporation. For the greater part of the time during and since May and June, 1909, and all the time during the last month and deemed guilty of a contempt of Court, and liable to the penalties of the law.

---

Witness, the Honorable John M. Harlan, Senior Associate Justice of the United States, at the Borough of Manhattan, City of New York, the 7th day of October, 1910.

JOHN A. SHIELDS,
Clerk.

HENRY WISE,
U. S. Attorney.