within the protection of the privileges and immunities clauses of Article IV, § 2 of the Constitution and the Fourteenth Amendment. Paul v. Virginia, 8 Wall. 168, 177; Pembina Mining Co. v. Pennsylvania, 125 U. S. 181, 187; Selover, Bates & Co. v. Walsh, 226 U. S. 112, 126. The State of North Dakota has granted no charter or certificate of incorporation to appellant, and has issued to it no permit to do business or own property within the state which could give rise to contract rights which appellant could assert against the state. None are to be implied from appellant's mere acquisition of land in the state either before or after the enactment of the statute. Erie R. Co. v. Pennsylvania, 21 Wall. 492; Connecticut Mutual Life Ins. Co. v. Spratley, 172 U. S. 602, 620–622; Hammond Packing Co. v. Arkansas, 212 U. S. 322, 344–5.

The Fourteenth Amendment does not deny to the state power to exclude a foreign corporation from doing business or acquiring or holding property within it. Horn Silver Mining Co. v. New York, 143 U. S. 305, 312–315; Hooper v. California, 155 U. S. 648, 652; Munday v. Wisconsin Trust Co., 252 U. S. 499; Crescent Oil Co. v. Mississippi, 257 U. S. 129, 137. While recognizing the unqualified power of the state to preclude its entry into the state for these purposes, appellant points out that the state has permitted it to enter and to invest its money in obligations secured by mortgage on land within the state, in consequence of which it lawfully acquired the land free of restrictions. Appellant argues that the state may not, by later legislation, force a sale of the land thus innocently acquired, under conditions which do not allow recovery of the original investment. But a state's power to exclude a foreign corporation, or to limit the nature of the business it may conduct within the state, does not end as soon as the corporation has lawfully entered the state and there acquired immovable property.
