the supplicant to have made reasonable efforts before the Commission itself to obtain reasonable conditions; and petitioners made no such efforts in this case. Pp. 653–654.

(e) This decision is not to be understood as holding such orders exempt from judicial examination or as extending a license to exact as reports what would not reasonably be comprehended within that term as used by Congress in the context of the Act. P. 654.

174 F. 2d 703, reversed.

The District Court dismissed suits by the United States under §§ 9 and 10 of the Federal Trade Commission Act to compel respondents to comply with an order of the Federal Trade Commission requiring them to file special reports, and to recover penalties for noncompliance. 80 F. Supp. 419. The Court of Appeals affirmed. 174 F. 2d 703. This Court granted certiorari. 338 U. S. 857. Reversed, p. 654.

Philip Elman argued the cause for the United States. With him on the brief were Solicitor General Perlman, Assistant Attorney General Bergson, Curtis C. Shears, J. Roger Wollenberg, W. T. Kelley and Joseph S. Wright.

L. M. McBride argued the cause and filed a brief for respondent in No. 273.

Frederic R. Sanborn argued the cause and filed a brief for respondent in No. 274.

Mr. Justice Jackson delivered the opinion of the Court.

This is a controversy as to the power of the Federal Trade Commission to require corporations to file reports showing how they have complied with a decree of the Court of Appeals enforcing the Commission's cease and desist order, in addition to those reports required by the decree itself.
